Reported: 03/24/2015. An anonymous caller at 2607 Washington said a black male and female were fighting outside near this address and the female was holding a baby. Officers located IO1 Floyd and IO2 Ealum at 2613 Washington Apt. C by hearing them arguing. They were cooperative. They are not married and do not live together but they have an infant child together. The child was present and uninjured. Floyd had no injuries and said Ealum did not put his hands on her. She said they were arguing when they got out of the car and argued all the way up to the apartment. Ealum also said they did not put their hands on each other but he had injuries, scratches and red marks, on his face and forehead. He insisted that he scratched and hit his own face when he got angry so he could release his anger without putting his hands on Floyd. Officers did not believe him but he insisted that Floyd has never hit him. Ealum had a warrant for a previous battery and was taken to jail. see 15-06062	FAIR, D. A.
