LW 1504660 Theft From Motor Vehicle &lt; $750	Denstorff, Jenna L. (W F, 28) VICTIM of Theft From Motor Vehicle &lt; $750 (C), at 3400 Lincoln Ave, Evansville, IN, between 07:00, 03/07/2015 and 08:33, 03/07/2015. Reported: 03/07/2015. On 3/7/2015 at 0830hrs I was dispatched to the State Hospital grounds to meet Jenna Denstorff about her vehicle being broken into. Jenna advised that she had parked her white 2005 Jeep Cherokee in the parking area of the park around 0700 hrs before going for a run. At one point, she ran past her vehicle and observed a W/M parked in an older gold truck next to her vehicle with the doors open. When she returned to her vehicle a short time later, the W/M was leaving north through the park in the gold truck. Denstorff quickly noticed that her vehicle had been ransacked and she was missing several items and believes the W/M was the suspect. Denstorff informed me that she had left her ignition key on top of the right rear tire as she went for her run and this is how the suspect must have gained entry because the key was now missing and there was no sign of forced entry. State Hospital was advised of the incident but they were unable to check the security cameras until 3/9/15. Denstorff was given a case number and informed how to add items she finds missing to the report at a later time.		ROSS, K. R.

LW 1504690	Theft All Other &lt; $750	Walmart VICTIM of Theft Shoplifting &lt; $750 (C), at 335 S Red Bank Rd, Evansville, IN, between 15:45, 03/07/2015 and 16:11, 03/07/2015. Reported: 03/07/2015. Officer responded to Wal-Mart in reference to a shoplift which had just occurred. The reporter, loss prevention employee King, states he observed two females walk into the store and go to jewelry. King described one female as dark headed and thin and the other as a heavysset blonde. King observed the dark headed female place several watches on top of her purse in the cart. He followed the females to the housewares area where the heavysset female leaned over the watches and was "handling" them in and about her purse. King believed the activity to be suspicious, so he continued to follow the females. They went to women's apparel and selected multiple items. From there, they proceeded to the self checkout. King was unable to tell exactly what was being stolen; however, he said their activity was extremely suspicious at the checkout. The females were folding items over other items before scanning them. King states items were being concealed between other items before being scanned. After the females completed their transaction, they went outside when they noticed King was following them. The females began to berate King; however, they stopped long enough for employees to get the license plate number. The plate returned to the offender listed. King also states there were praying hands on the back window of the maroon Ford SUV. The listed offender is already barred from Wal-mart for shoplifting. King and other loss prevention employees reviewed video and determined the watches, several items of clothing and a suspected wall clock were stolen. Surveillance video was supplied to EPD. Young, Steven Randal (W M, 52) VICTIM of Theft All Other &lt; $750 (C), at 2221 Old Business 41, Evansville, IN, between 16:11, 03/07/2015 and 16:40, 03/07/2015. Reported: 03/07/2015. Officers were dispatched to Old Business 41 Room 142 for a theft report. Upon arrival the victim, Steven Young, stated a young white female he knows as "Brittany" stole his wallet. Steven stated he was sleep in his room when he heard someone knocking at the door. He advised the person to come in. Brittany entered the room and asked Steven for a pair of pants. Steven told Brittany that she could have a pair of pants in the dresser. She put on a pair of pants and told him they did not fit and exited the room. Steven went back to sleep. When Steven woke up he noticed that his wallet was missing. He stated he didn't have any money in the wallet but he did have three debit cards. Steven was advised to call his bank and have them stop payments on all cards. He was given a case number. Steven later advised officers that Brittany was staying with an older white male in room 102 but recently left the property.	HOLLINS, B. E.

LW 1504703 Dog Destroy	[missing name] VICTIM of Dog Destroy (C), at 756 Cardinal Dr, Evansville, IN, between 19:50, 03/07/2015 and 19:58, 03/07/2015. Reported: 03/07/2015. Officer Sammet and I were sent to 756 Cardinal Dr in reference to Pfender shooting and killing a neighbors blue pit bull. Pfender informed dispatch that the pit bull was attacking his dog and he was sure the pit bull was killing it. We arrived with Animal Control and found that the pit bull was deceased upon arrival with two gun shot wounds. I spoke with Rhodes and Katelyn who stated they were watching the pit bull for Durham [who incarcerated right now]. Rhodes stated that he has let the dog out several times in the fenced in yard and the pit has had no issues with the neighbors dogs. He stated that tonight as soon as he let the dog out, it jumped the fence and went after the corgie. He and Katelyn tried chasing after it but Katelyn stated she could not get the pit away from the corgie. Katelyn told Pfender to try to get the corgie away and if he couldn't to "do what he had to". Katelyn and Rhodes both stated that they understood why Pfender shot the pit. I then spoke to Pfender. Pfender has been watching the dogs for his son at the residence. Pfender said that he had let the corgie and the other dog [possibly a rat terrier] out back in the fenced in yard. He stated that as soon as he let them out, the pit jumped the fence and went after the corgie. Pfender tried to separate the dogs and stated he went to grab the pit's collar but Katelyn told him not to, warning him that the dog was aggressive. He stated that he had his handgun on his person and Katelyn saw it and told him to shoot the pit. Pfender stated he didn't want to but he really believed that had he not shot the pit, it would have killed the corgie and possibly went after the other dog or him. He then discharged his firearm twice, hitting the dog twice and killing it. Animal Control took possession of the pit bull and was given a case number.		SEDORIS, S. N.

Battery - Class A Misdemeanor [am]	On 030715 at 2246 hours, I was dispatched to 5100 Morgan Ave in reference to a customer problem. Upon arrival, I spoke to Mr. Yancey who is the manager at Applebee's. He stated that a female customer had placed an order for carry out. When she arrived, she did not want to pay for the food. She began cussing Mr. Yancey and his staff. When he asked her to leave the business, she refused. Mr. Yancey was finally able to get her to the entrance where he held the door open for her and continued to tell her to leave. As he attempted to close the door, she put her foot against the door, keeping it from closing. Mr. Yancey stated that he kicked her foot back from the door and she struck him with a closed fist underneath his chin. He stated that he "hip checked" her away from the door and he was able to close it. The female attempted to get back inside the business, but left the property after he continued to hold the door. The female was seen getting into a dark colored Chevrolet Trailblazer and left westbound on Morgan Ave.
