Reported: 03/22/2015. I, Officer S. Brown, was dispatched to Wal-Mart west in reference to a shoplift which had just occurred. The reporter, an employee with Wal-Mart, states a tan slender white male in his late 30 or early 40s walked into the lawn and garden side of the store pushing an empty shopping cart. She states he was walking very quickly and this drew her attention. The reporter followed the male to the electronics area where he selected a 50" Vizio television and an HP computer monitor and placed the two large items into the cart. She followed him to the lawn and garden area, where she believes he selected another couple of items; however, she was unable to see what he placed into the cart. At this time, she states he quickly walked out the same door where he entered. She states another white male was waiting in the passenger seat of the vehicle, when he stepped out and assisted in placing the items in the trunk. At that time, the pair drove off turning south on Red Bank Road. The reporter was able to get the license plate, as she phoned police. She did not attempt to apprehend the males, but said the male who went into the store, was inside for less than five minutes.		BROWN, S. E.

Case #	Description	(A) Attempted, (C) Completed, (F) Felony, (M) Misdemeanor	Officer
Commit Felony/ Theft	Officers were dispatched to 1304 N. Heidelberg Avenue in regards to a burglary report. The RP, Douglas Hunsaker Sr, advised somebody had entered the unattached garage of the victim, Anna Iglesias, and taken items. Hunsaker believed the involved other, _____ who lived next door had taken the items. I spoke with Iglesias on the phone. She advised the garage contained a large amount of various frozen meats, valued at approximately $500. The frozen meats were stored inside boxes in a large freezer chest in the garage. She stated there were also ten cases of canned goods, seven cases of cooking oil and four cases of bleach. She stated the family is associated with a local food pantry and that is why they had all of the items in the garage. Iglesias' husband recently passed away. Her brother, Hunsaker, was helping her remove items off of the property. Hunsaker advised he was at the residence at approximately 10:00am this morning and all of the food items were still in the large chest freezer in the garage. When he returned at approximately 4:15pm, the meat from the freezer was gone and the other cases of items were also gone. He talked to Earl Matthews at the smoke shop on Heidelberg Avenue. Matthews was watching over the home for Iglesias. Matthews told Hunsaker that he had walking from the back yard but did not have any items in his hands. I spoke with Matthews and he confirmed this. He said it was at approximately 12:00pm when he observed Fisher in the back yard. Officers made contact with _____ his residence. He gave officers permission to enter his home and speak with him. He was cooperative and was open with allowing officers to look around. Officers located a small chest freezer full of various meats. We also located one case of cooking oil and a large amount of canned goods. However, _____ advised he had purchased all of the items from the store. There were no large food boxes inside the house that would indicate he had taken them from the neighbors garage. It should be noted that Iglesias stated they had given _____ food items in the past. They had also allowed him to borrow and use some of their items.
