LW 1504249	Criminal Mischief Moving Veh [am]	officers arrived and got control of the fight. The victim Bichler was laying on the ground unconscious. There was another male bleeding from the head. He said he was hit in the head with an unknown object by an unknown person, did not want to press charges and did not want medical attention. There were many conflicting stories about what happened. Only one out of 15 people in the parking lot thought a gun was fired. All agreed a big fight broke out in the parking lot and it was hard to tell who was fighting who. The victim left with AMR 0303 to Deaconess. The people in the lot who could not be determined as involved, injured or otherwise were released one by one. After officers released the people in the lot, Det Holden came out of the Bar with information regarding purse thefts and another fight inside leading up to the outside fight. See case number 15- 04248 for that report. While investigating the thefts, officers reviewed the surveillance videos with staff and were able to get a bigger picture of what happened outside. Two witnesses gave info about the fight in the lot. Detective Holden saw the video and will follow up. An hour after the initial call, the victim was still unable to give an account of what happened at the ER. His mom was given a case number and told how to follow up.	UNDERWOOD, B.

Reported: 03/01/2015. On 3/1/2015 at 1220 hrs, I was dispatched to 2020 Covert Ave (Laundry & Tan Express) to meet with Chrystal Moore regarding a W/M harassing her. Chrystal stated that she and her life partner had been having problems with the OF at their workplace where they all currently are employed. On today's date, the OF confronted both C. Moore and L. Moore while they were doing laundry at the above address. The OF began getting verbally abusive and eventually threatened to do bodily harm to C. Moore who is now very concerned that the altercation has escalated outside of the workplace. C. Moore also is concerned because the OF has a tattoo of a "swastika" on his chest and believes he will target her due to her alternative lifestyle. Moore was instructed how to further charges and how to apply for a PO and given a case number. Suspect was GOA.		ROSS, K. R.

LW 1504282	Nelson, Valerie Renee (B F, 46) VICTIM of Criminal Mischief [bm] (C), at 1114 Read St, Evansville, IN, between 19:55, 03/01/2015 and 20:01, 03/01/2015. Reported: 03/01/2015.		BREWER, J. W.
Criminal Mischief [bm]	I was dispatched to 1114 Read Street in regards to a burglary in progress. Dispatch advised a male wearing a red hoodie went into the front door. There was also a knife lying by the front door that may have been used to open the door. The RP, Michael Hartley, stated the resident of the home was in jail and nobody should have been there. While enroute, I was driving west on Missouri Street and observed a black female wearing a red hooded sweatshirt and a black male wearing a dark hooded sweatshirt walking east on Missouri Street between Read Street and Baker Avenue. I turned around to identify them but was unable to locate them. I arrived on scene and spoke with Hartley. He advised the subjects left walking east bound on Missouri Street. Hartley said the resident's mailbox was full of mail prior to the unknown subjects entering the residence. I checked the residence at 1114 Read Street and found the front door was locked and secured. There was a clothes hanger that had been modified to jimmy a door laying on the porch. I walked around the north side of the home and found a window broken. There was glass laying on top of the snow and there were footprints leading to the backyard (west side of the house). At that time I checked the west door and found it to be unlocked. Officer A. Aussieker and I entered the residence and cleared it. Nothing appeared to be out of place and nothing appeared to have been taken. The residents mail was sitting in a neat pile on top of a shelf. The home appeared to be undisturbed besides the broken window. There was a large refrigerator placed in front of the broken window. Officers checked the area for the involved subjects but were unable to located them.

Reported: 03/02/2015. Officers were dispatched to the area of the 200 Blk of E. Missouri in reference to a report of shots being fired. While enroute to the area multiple calls were received from the same location for shots fired as well. One caller advised they heard the shots and saw a subject running away to the west. A subject matching this description was found a short time later at 1212 Baker Apt 108 and he advised Officers that he had been shot. The subject advised officers that he was walking in an alley near the gas station at Heidelberg and Louisiana when he was shot from behind. He told officers that he didn't see anyone. AMR was contacted and the subject was transported to Deaconess where he was treated for his wounds. Detectives and Crime Scene were contacted for collection of evidence. The investigation is ongoing.		ELFREICH, C. A.
