	I, Officer S. Brown, was dispatched to Wal-Mart west in reference to shoplifter. I arrived and met with Asset Protection Employee, Jeffries. Also, seated in the office was the offender, Caroline Frye. Frye was cooperative and was identified with an Indiana ID card.
	Jeffries states he was walking the sales floor and noticed a black female in the housewares aisle, placing merchandise from her electric cart into grey Wal-Mart bags. Believing this behavior to be suspicious he alerted another Asset Protection Employee, King. Jeffries followed Frye as she moved into hardware where she selected several cans of spray paint before moving into toys where she concealed it along with a fabric tablecloth. Jeffries continued to follow Frye through multiple departments including pets where she placed her already bagged merchandise inside of a clothes hamper she had in her cart. She then moved to another area of the store where she selected multiple bottles of lotion and placed them into her cart. She moved through sporting goods and into domestics where she selected a king size comforter set and placed it into her cart. She made her way through apparel and up the grocery action alley where she went into Subway. After entering Subway, she exited through the grocery doors, passing all points of sale and the EAS towers, failing to pay for the merchandise inside her cart. At this point, Jeffries informed King that Frye was exiting the store. Officer Townsend was already outside the vestibule due to a previous shoplifting report he was taking on Wal-Mart's behalf. Officer Townsend approached Frye and asked her for a receipt which she did not have. Jeffries, King and Off. Townsend escorted Frye to the office. The total merchandise stolen was $133.00. Wal-Mart employees were given a case number and Frye was cited and released. Due to Wal-mart's request, Frye will not be barred.
