LW 1506081	Traffic-accident Hit & Run /att/prop [cm]	seriously hurt but wanted to press charges because this happened in front of her child and there was also a case worker present with the suspect. Lawrence Scott is a witness to this assault and was walking with the suspect at the time. The victim was given a case # and information on how to file charges. Brown, Shannon Marie (W F, 33) VICTIM of Traffic-accident Hit & Run /att/prop [cm] (C), at 199 N Garvin St/e Illinois St, Evansville, IN, on 03/25/2015, 11:45. Reported: 03/25/2015. I was dispatched to Garvin St. and Illinois St. in reference to a hit and run report. I arrived and met with the victim, Shannon Brown. Brown said she was stopped at the stop sign on eastbound E. Illinois St at the N. Garvin St. intersection. Brown said she observed a red pickup truck traveling northbound on Garvin St. approaching the Illinois St. intersection. She said the truck was attempting to turn westbound on Illinois St. from Garvin St. Brown said the driver cut the turn sharply and collided into the front of her vehicle. She said the driver backed up and then pulled next to her. He told her he was going to pull over behind her. Brown said as the driver pulled behind her he took off going westbound on Illinois and did not stop. After I gathered all of Brown's information, and a description of the suspect, black male, late 20's to early 30's, red shirt, and a dark hat with red writing on it, I gave her the case number and she left the scene. Approximately 10 minutes later Brown called 911 and advised she located the hit and run truck parked in the back yard at 501 E. Franklin St. She advised dispatch there was not a license plate on the truck, but she knew it was the truck. She then advised dispatch she observed the driver walking southbound on N. Heidelberg just south of Franklin St. I had already arrived at the location of the hit and run vehicle when she observed the hit and run driver. VCSO Deputy Michael Robinson was in the area after I had put out the BOL description of the driver, and located the person in question that matched the description Brown was talking about. This person was stopped on N. Heidelberg just north of Division St. He was identified as Robert Bradley Farmer. Deputy Robinson detained Farmer until Brown could come to the location and see if this was the hit and run driver. I then went to Deputy Robinson's location after towing the hit and run truck. Brown arrived a short time later and positively identified Farmer as the hit and run driver. Farmer denied being the driver when I informed him he was positively identified. I checked Farmer's driver's status through Indiana BMV and it came back HTV for life. He was transported to VCC to be booked in.	SMITH, K. E.
