Reported: 04/19/2015. Officers were dispatched to this address for a family dispute. Once on scene I spoke with the victim. She stated that earlier today her and the suspect had an argument over her dog defecating in the home. She stated that she left for awhile. When she returned she claimed that he was accusing her of stealing his phone. She stated that she did not take his phone. She says that he got upset and went and got her phone out of her car. The victim went inside the home to get her phone back. She stated that she grabbed it back from him and put the phone in her bra. She said that he then grabbed it back from her and slammed her against the bathroom wall. She claims that he broke a nail on her left hand and gave her a minor scratch on her left middle finger. She said that her lip was swollen earlier but has gone away now. The only injury that I saw was a very minor scratch on her left middle finger. The suspect agreed that they were arguing over the dog. He said that she hit him with a lamp in the head but it did not leave a mark. He admits to throwing a lighter towards her but did not intend to hit her. He stated that the lighter struck her in the face. He admitted to taking her phone because she took his. The suspect was also upset that her family and friends have been coming over all day harassing him about the phone situation. He gave her phone back to her and his phone suddenly reappeared in the bathroom of the house. The victim was given a case number and advised how to pursue chargers. She was also advised to call for a standby if she needs to return for property. The victim left to stay with her mother for awhile. The suspect and victim have been in a relationship and living together for about 6 months.		SAMMET, N. P.

LW 1508162	Oconnell, Gayla Dee (W F, 38) VICTIM of Criminal Mischief [bm] (C), at 1661 E Michigan St, Evansville, IN, on 04/19/2015, 23:56. Reported: 04/19/2015. On 4/20/2015 at approximately 2356 hours, Gayla Oconnell called 911 after she heard something having been thrown against her door. On scene, Oconnell stated she was sitting inside when she heard something hit her door (found to be a form of canned baked beans which was all over her front door). Since about 2000 hours on this date, Oconnell has been hearing a "banging" noise on her south wall (Oconnell showed where a couple items appeared to have fallen off a shelf along this wall and onto the ground) which would be coming from apartment "A". She thought this recent noise on the door was from her neighbor as well, did not know what was going on and called 911 without looking outside.		KARGES, M. T.
Criminal Mischief [bm]	On scene, I could see Oconnell was visibly upset and worried. Oconnell stated the aforementioned events to me and believes the suspect is her neighbor in apartment "A". Oconnell did not witness the neighbor, but believes it is him because of the noises on their shared wall and also since there is no one else that she would suspect that is mad at her. Oconnell stated that on April 1st, she allowed his girlfriend and child to come over when they knocked on her door for help from him (neighbor/suspect). He has since been served an eviction notice and Oconnell believes he is mad at her now. Officer Condiff and I attempted to make contact with the neighbor but could not. Recent history for this address shows a suspect name at this address that matched the suspect information that Oconnell gave me. I advised her on how to follow up with the Prosecutor's Office and detectives. I also advised her to call back with further problems.

LW 1508166 Burglary- Breaks &amp; Enters W/intent Commit Felony/ Theft	Goebel, Andrew Joseph (W M, 44) VICTIM of Burglary- Breaks & Enters W/intent Commit Felony/ Theft (C), at 3330 W Maryland St, Evansville, IN, between 00:01, 04/17/2015 and 23:24, 04/19/2015. Reported: 04/20/2015.  I was on patrol in Golfmoor Park when I saw a motorcycle with no lights driving westbound on Golfmoor Road from Wessel Lane at an extremely high rate of speed (I estimate 70 mph). I pulled out in an attempt to catch up to the motorcycle however quickly lost sight of it. Several minutes later I found the motorcycle lying in the side of the road just across from the lake on Golfmoor. There was a black size 9 Nike tennis shoe stuck in the mud next to the bike where the driver of the bike obviously fled the scene after laying the bike over.  I ran the bike NCIC and it came back not stolen, however we contacted the owner of it, Thomas Alcorn. Alcorn stated that he loaned the bike to his friend Andrew Goebel and that Goebel had been storing it in his unattached garage at 3330 W. Maryland Street. Alcorn said that Goebel has been out of town since Thursday and that if anyone was on the bike then it was most certainly stolen. K-9 Sgt. Hoover tracked to the area near the Hilltop Inn, however lost the track in that area.  Alcorn said that there were some decals that had been removed from the bike since he last saw it two days ago. Alcorn attempted but was unable to make contact with Goebel. Alcorn has a key to Goebel's house and we went with him there to ensure nothing else was missing. Alcorn thinks that the garage door may have been left unlocked. We gave the motorcycle back to Alcorn. It is a KTM 250 dirt bike and it is not street legal due to the fact that it has no lights on it.	DECAMPS, M. A.
