Reported: 04/27/2015. Carla Beckwith arrived at the west sector office and advised me of this report. Beckwith stated she noticed her license plate was missing from the vehicle on 4/25/2015 at approximately 1730 hours when she arrived at a separate location. She noticed it upon getting there because she went to get in the back of the vehicle and saw it missing. Beckwith stated the license plate was on her vehicle around 1400 hours when she last noticed it (parked) outside her residence. Beckwith`s husband, Bruce, checked around the home, alley, and nearby trash cans, but did not find the plate. There was no signs of obvious damage from the plate being removed. The screws that hold the plate in were also removed. Beckwith does not know who could have taken the license plate. Beckwith tried reporting this when it occurred on Saturday, but was told she had to wait until Monday by the call taker. Dispatch did not find any recent report showing the plate on a "towed" vehicle either. I advised her to call detectives with further info. EPD Records was notified.		KARGES, M. T.

He added that sometime between the dates and times listed, somebody, possibly the suspect, scratched "fat" in the paint on the back hatch of his listed vehicle. No witness. Givens, Henry Eugene (B M, 41) VICTIM of Burglary - Attempted (A), at 841 Washington Ave, Evansville, IN, on 04/27/2015, 12:19. Reported: 04/27/2015. At about 12:20pm, a passerby called 911 and said she saw what appeared to be two males attempting to break into a front door of the apartment building at 841 Washington. One was described as wearing a white T-shirt and the other described as wearing a grey hoodie with the hood up. The caller said it looked as if one of the OFs was prying open the door with a screwdriver. The caller then drove around the block and saw that the OFs were no longer outside. She circled again and saw that a red van had parked in the driveway. Ofc. R. Dennis and I arrived a few minutes later and saw Givens (victim 1) sitting in his van in the driveway. He said that he'd been sitting there for about five minutes and hadn't seen anything. He also said that he lives in apt. D. We then approached the building and saw that the front door had been pried open. We then went upstairs and saw that the door to apartment D had been kicked open. We then cleared the apartment, which had been ransacked, and afterwards spoke with Givens. Givens said that he came home to eat lunch in his car in the driveway. He said that he entered the driveway via the alley behind the apartments. He said that as he was pulling into the alley, he saw the OFs on foot in the alley and going in opposite directions. He said he recognized OF1 because he often sees him in the area. He did not get a good look at OF2. He had no idea at this point that someone had broken into his apartment. Crime Scene Tech B. Gentry processed the scene. Givens looked through the apartment and said he didn't notice anything missing.	FENDEL, W. M.

Reported: 04/27/2015. Officers were dispatched to 1724 Russell Ave for a domestic violence in progress run. Upon arrival, Lisa Fischer, stated her daughter`s boyfriend attacked her in front of her kids. Fischer stated that she was at the listed address drinking with her daughter, Heather Mossberger. Fischer and Mossberger began to argue about the relationship she was having with the offender. The offender arrived shortly after the argument occurred. Fischer confronted the offender and he punched her in the head with a closed fist an undetermined amount of times. The offender then slammed Fischer to the ground. She was able to escape him and run into the home. She locked the doors to prevent the offender from attacking her again. Mossberger became upset and demanded that Fischer unlocked the door to her home. Mossberger then broke the window to the side door and entered the home. Fischer and her three children then ran upstairs and locked themselves inside a room. Officers spoke to the offender, who originally left the scene but shortly returned. He stated that he arrived on scene and was unloading car seats from his vehicle. He then noticed that Mossberger and Fischer were arguing outside the home. Fischer approached the offender and punched him in the head three times. The offender then pushed Fischer to the ground in self-defense. Fischer then ran inside the home with her three kids and locked the door. Officers spoke to Mossberger separately and she confirmed the offenders story. Officers did not observe any visible injuries on Fischer.
