Reported: 04/08/2015. The victim Davis lives with the suspect, his wife at 117 Rupper. They were drinking at Bucks Tavern tonight when they got into an argument. Davis got a text from a female at work and his wife got mad about it. Davis said he thought they had it all sorted out and were finished arguing by the time they got home. Davis said he and his wife walked in the house and she tried to push him down the stairs. He said he tried to get his keys and leave but his wife had the keys and refused to give them to him. Davis said his wife started hitting him with her fists, but he was able to block them all with his arms and was not injured. She also pushed him again. Davis said his wife grabbed a kitchen knife and held it behind her back. She never came at him with it and never made any threatening statements but he feared she was going to use it against him. He ran out of the house and asked for assistance from his neighbors at 114 Rupper. They called 911 for him. Davis had two kitchen knives with him. He said he took them both from his wife before running out of the house. We spoke to the suspect. She confirmed the first part of Davis' story but said she never grabbed any knife and neither of them ever put their hands on each other. She said Davis was acting crazy and started saying he was going to call the police and say she pulled a knife on him. He told her the police would never believe her because of her mental history. Davis told us his wife has some past mental health crisis history. Davis agreed to leave with his neighbor to his parents' home in Chandler. The suspect also left for the night because she was worried Davis would come back and do something crazy. Both were advised how to get a protective order. Both refused AMR. The suspect did not want to press charges against Davis. Davis was given a case number and advised how to follow up. | FAIR, D. A. | |

She was visibly upset and asked me for help with her teenage daughter who was `out of control` and had cut the headliner in her vehicle. At that time, the back door to the victim`s SUV opened and a screaming 16 year old girl emerged. As the victim walked back to her vehicle, a screaming match ensued. The suspect went back into the vehicle, throwing a cell phone onto the seat. Suspect was screaming that she wasn`t going to listen and wasn`t going to get out of the vehicle. I asked the victim to step to the front of her vehicle and I asked the suspect to step out of the SUV. She complied and I detained her using handcuffs due to the statement reporter made about the offender cutting the headliner. Upon speaking with the reporter further, she stated the offender cut the headliner with her keychain which had two sharp points. I saw the keychain still in the vehicle. Reporter was trying to get offender to her counseling session and had picked her up from school (Tech Center). Reporter picked offender up from school due to finding out the offender had been skipping school. Reporter also overheard offender saying she was going to take her vehicle and leave the state. Reporter and her husband picked up offenders car (which they own) and took it home. Reporter took the car home and picked offender up from school. In the vehicle, offender became upset and began throwing a tantrum, cutting the headliner of the vehicle and throwing things. When asked about pressing charges, reporter wasn`t sure. | LW 1507224 Battery - Class B Misdemeanor [bm] | I was dispatched to 1017 Mary Street in regards to an assault in progress. Dispatch advised the victim, Sara Page, had been punched in the face by the offender. Upon arrival, Officers made contact with the offender inside the address. The offender advised Page left the residence after a verbal dispute but it was not physical. Officers checked RMS for Page and found a home address of 1008 Edgar Street. Officers went to the address in an effort to make contact. Page was not home but Involved Other #1, Amanda Page, and Involved Other #2, Nick Goldy, were sitting on the front porch. They spoke with Page on the phone and she told them she would be home shortly as she was four blocks away on a bicycle. Officers waited approximately fifteen minutes for Page to arrive but she failed to show. Officers left the address and made contact with Page on a bicycle at Mary Street/Oregon Street. Page was holding a frozen bag of potatoes to her right cheek. She was extremely irate and demanded that we arrest the offender for hitting her. I asked Page to calm down and explain to me what had occurred. Page stated her friend, "Misty" had called her for some syringes for her diabetic mother. Page brought a syringe to 1017 Mary Street to give to "Misty." After giving her the syringe, the offender said "fuck you bitch!" and punched Page on the right cheek. Page said the attack was unprovoked and she had done nothing to the offender. Page was holding the frozen potatoes on her right cheek but never complained of pain. I did not observe any swelling or redness to the right side of her face. I also had her remove her sunglasses to check for injury but also did not observe any. Officers asked Page what her relationship with the offender was. She said she did not have a relationship with him and did not know why he would attack her for no reason. While speaking with Page, she advised the offender had also thrown a brick into her home. Officers returned to her address at 1008 Edgar Street and checked for a broken window that the brick would have entered. All of the windows were intact. Eventually, Page came into the backyard and pointed out a brick that was lodged into the outside wall. She said the offender threw the brick after he chased her | | |

The paint and wood around the brick was also decaying. I asked Page again what her relationship with the offender was because of a statement her boyfriend, Nick Goldy, had said earlier. Goldy stated that the offender probably attacked her because of him. Page acknowledged that she had known the offender for approximately 15 years and were in a friendship for 5 years. However, they were currently not involved with each other. Page handed me her cell phone and asked me to read the messages between her and the offender. Page and the offender were sending text messages back and forth over the past few days talking about "getting together" and "meeting in the back of the house" and some messages about drugs. Page had also sent several picture messages of herself in lingerie to the offender. After reviewing the messages, I told Page the report would be completed but the she would have to press charges tomorrow and an arrest would not be made tonight. She became belligerent and I explained that her actions and story of events did not make much sense. She became irate and demanded my badge number and Officer B. Hollins badge number. Both were verbally provided to her. After officers left the scene to complete the report, dispatch advised there was a disorderly conduct at 1017 Mary Street. The offender of the previous report advise Page and Goldy were standing in the alley holding bricks and antagonizing him. When the offender told them he was calling the police, they took the bricks and ran back to 1008 Edgar Street. A witness to this incident, James Harris, corroborated what the offender had said. Officers spoke with the offender again and asked him about the nature of his relationship with Page. The offender advised that he and Page are in an secret ongoing sexual relationship that Goldy was unaware of. The offender thought that Goldy possibly found out so Page is trying to cover for herself. | Jones, Marlon Lamont (B M, 30) VICTIM of Battery-simple Assault Other [am] (C), at 115 Nw Sixth St, Evansville, IN, between 14:55, 04/08/2015 and 14:58, 04/08/2015. Tonight before she left for church at 1900 hours, Smith stated she and her husband had closed some of the windows, but forgot to lock them. Smith stated when they got home at 2100 hours, her son went to his room and noticed the back window was opened and the screen was missing. Smith's son also noticed that the X-Box One, a controller, and several games for the system were missing. Smith stated they had replaced the screen in the window before calling 9-1-1. There were several other items of value in the area the X-Box One had been taken from including a TV, stereo equipment and speakers, and a X-Box 360 with controllers and several games that did not appear to be touched. Nothing of evidentiary value was noted on scene. Smith was given a case number for insurance purposes. | | CONDIFF, M. V. |

| LW 1507281 | female passed out on the sidewalk. I arrived and observed offender laying on the sidewalk screaming and crying. I spoke to Offender and she was unable to communicate with me due to the fact that she was so intoxicated. I called for AMR to transport the female to the Emergency Room. Once Offender was in the ambulance they began to go to the hospital. Offender then jumped from the moving ambulance and ran away. Dispatch was notified by AMR. Dispatch was then contacted by several neighbors in the area of Blackford and Evans saying that the female was running around screaming causing a disturbance. I located the Offender at Blackford and Evans and placed her in double locked handcuffs. Offender was transported to the VCCC where she was booked. | | HIRSHMAN, B. K. |
