LW 1508553 Resist Law Enforcement [am]	Society VICTIM of Resist Law Enforcement [am] (C), at 899 Edgar St/w Maryland St, Evansville, IN, between 16:40, 04/24/2015 and 16:45, 04/24/2015. Reported: 04/24/2015. Officers were driving west on Columbia Street approaching First Avenue when they observed a tan Buick Lesabre driving east on Columbia Avenue. Earlier in the shift, Officers received a narcotics tip about a vehicle matching the description to possibly have a large amount of narcotics coming from Posey County. The vehicle was supposed to be in the area of Sam`s Food Market (900 W. Columbia Street). After the vehicle passed, officers completed a U-Turn and followed the vehicle east on Columbia Street. Upon turning around, the vehicle immediately turned left (north) onto Edgar Street without using a turn signal. By the time officers turned north onto Edgar Street and activated the emergency lights, the vehicle had already made it north of Maryland Street. The vehicle was stopped in the middle of the road and the offender fled west on foot, jumping over a privacy fence. Officers called for backup as a result of the foot pursuit and stayed with the vehicle. Austin was placed into double-locked handcuffs due to his erratic behavior. Powell, Caldemeyer and Collis were removed from the vehicle, placed into double-locked handcuffs and separated. Eventually, Caldemeyer told Officer P. Smith that the driver of the vehicle was the offender and he had fled on foot. Powell stated she only knew the driver as "Chase." The owner of the vehicle was contacted but not able to respond to the scene due to being in poor health. Her son, IO #5 Dunning, came to the scene to recover the vehicle. Dunning advised "Chase" picked the vehicle up from him at approximately 8:00am to fix the front left caliper. Dunning said "Chase" was supposed to fix the vehicle near his mothers house at Louisiana Street/Harriet Street. Sergeant J. Evans and Detective B. Melton responded to the scene. Detective B. Melton spoke with Dunning and was granted permission to check the interior of the vehicle. Officers located a blue jewelry box containing cosmetic jewelry and a black tool box containing various tools. Dunning advised the items did not belong to him and they were taken as found property. Officers also located prescription pills and a syringe inside the trunk of the vehicle. Another prescription pill was recovered from an unclaimed purse. A small "roach" containing a green leafy substance was recovered from Powell. Each of these items were recovered and entered as found property. Officers also located a machete, large knife, axe and bolt cutters inside the vehicle. The offender had an active misdemeanor warrant in RMS. Powell and Collis were released from the scene. Dunning recovered the vehicle.		BREWER, J. W.

LW 1508561 Invasion Of Privacy [am]	Society VICTIM of Narc-poss Paraphernalia [am] (C), at 1212 N First Ave, Evansville, IN, between 17:36, 04/24/2015 and 17:44, 04/24/2015. Reported: 04/24/2015.  I, Officer S. Brown, was dispatched to 1214 N. First Ave. in reference to a fight in progress. Upon arrival, I determined the address was actually 1212 N. First Ave. I overheard loud subjects in the backyard behind a fence at the address. When I approached, one of the males was holding an alcohol bottle as the other male (the offender) was telling him the "cops are here." I spoke with offender, Morton, regarding the incident and asked him if he was in possession of any weapons. He replied "no," and put his hands in the air. I began patting Morton down when I felt several objects in his pockets. I asked Morton if it was ok if I checked inside his pockets, to which he replied "yes." I pulled a purple metal smoking pipe from Morton`s front left pants pocket. There was burnt residue inside the pipe which through my training and experience, I believed to be marijuana. Morton was cited and released.		DOANE, J. P.

I was dispatched to the Break Time Bar in reference to a man down on the sidewalk in front of the building. When I arrived, there were several subjects attempting to help the subject, identified as Keith Angle. Angle was actively seizing and in need of medical assistance. AMR and EFD were called to the scene.  I spoke with the witness, Sterling Millay, who said that he had just closed up the bar kitchen and stepped outside and saw Jamie McFarland and Angle on the sidewalk; Millay said he saw McFarland shove Angle backwards and he fell to the ground, hitting his head on the sidewalk.  I spoke to McFarland, who said that he and Angle had been together all evening at another bar arguing and the conflict continued when they got to Break Time. He said they stepped out in front of the bar and Angle was "getting in my face" so he lightly pushed him; he said that when he pushed Angle, he stumbled over a crack in the sidewalk and that, along with how drunk they both were, caused him to fall backwards.  Angle has a pre-existing medical condition that causes him to have frequent seizures. He had been drinking heavily and there was a crack and damage on the sidewalk where he fell. There was no bleeding from where he hit his head which		WINTERS, K. L.
