Reported: 04/11/2015. On 4/11/15 at approximately 0018 hours, James Williams called 911 to report his son had damaged some of his property. On scene, Williams showed me the garage area that his adult son sleeps in. There was a mattress, tv, table and miscellaneous items. Williams stated how his wife had taken the son to Deaconess for treatment after the son requested help due to his drinking. Williams stated how earlier on in the evening (4/10/15), he called 911 when his son was causing problems then too. Shortly after police left, the son came to them and asked to be taken to Deaconess for help. When they returned (left son at Deaconess) they found the garage had several items thrown around including a table and portable light fixture pushed over. These items were owned by Williams. Williams stated he wanted to press charges for the damage seen on the light fixture (metal bracket holding light housing appeared bent with the protective metal a part as well). Williams was given a case number and advised on how to follow up with the Prosecutor's Office and to call back with further problems.		KARGES, M. T.
