Apparently, an anonymous driver was following the vehicle and called Dispatch with updates on its location. Dispatch advised the vehicle had pulled over on the U-Haul lot on Gilbert at Riverside Drive. Myself and Officer J. Taylor were enroute to that location on Riverside from Kentucky when we observed the vehicle west on Riverside approaching Kentucky Avenue. I turned around and caught up to the vehicle as it was stopped on Kentucky Avenue at Covert (in the west bound turn lane). Porter had a difficult time focusing on my requests and was fumbling with paperwork. She was lethargic acting and made odd movements while she was looking for requested paperwork. Porter was acting very bizarre from the onset of the stop to its conclusion. Her speech was slurred, her mood swung from rational (and somewhat upbeat) to hysterically irrational and crying, she could not sit still for over 5 seconds at a time, and she had a very hard time refraining from talking. It appeared she was under the influence of a narcotic substance of some sort. She did not have an odor of alcoholic beverage on her breath. Her pupils were pin pointed and fixed. She talked incessantly and jumped from one unrelated topic to another. Porter stated she always acted this way and that she goes to the Methadone Clinic everyday for Methadone, but she wasn't under the influence of anything else. Porter was going to be taken to Deaconess for a chemical test, but we were having trouble finding anywhere to place her child. CPS was called to the scene to aid with placement of the child since we could not reach any relatives that were willing to take the child. Porter told the CPS worker that she had taken 3 Klonopin tablets (Klonopin is a Schedule IV drug requiring a prescription) in addition to her methadone treatment today. CPS worker advised officers that Klonopin is definitely not a part of Porter's rehabilitation prescription regimen. Porter told the CPS worker she did not have a prescription for Klonopin. CPS took custody of the child and Officer Current took Porter to Deaconess Hospital E.R. for the chemical test. Current read Porter the Implied Consent Warning and Porter submitted to a chemical blood test. Porter was transported to VCS jail and booked in on the above charges. Current took custody of the State kit and turned it over to Crime Scene to be placed into evidence.

Officers responded to 1603 W Louisiana St in reference to a disorderly conduct. Lisa Barton advised Robin Stilwell went downstairs and began arguing with Barton as she was doing homework. Stilwell then began pushing Barton. Barton advised she felt threatened, and responded by grabbing a bat and swinging it at Stilwell's legs. This caused Stilwell to back off, and Barton was able to leave and called police.

Stilwell stated she was inside the house when Barton began to argue with her over their relationship with Nathan Jacobs. Stilwell stated Barton swung a bat at her, striking her on the left side. Stilwell did not have any visible injuries and did not complain of pain. Jacobs advised he had stepped in between Stilwell and Barton in an attempt to break up the argument. All parties involved advised they did not want to pursue charges, and did not want to cooperate any further with the investigation. They were given case numbers and advised to follow up with the prosecutor's office if they decided to pursue charges at a later date.

I, Officer S. Brown, was dispatched to 2013 Stringtown in reference to a battery. I arrived and met with Ivers and Becker. Ivers had an open cut to the left side of her forehead. Both Becker and Ivers advised the offender had been staying with them for about a week prior to tonight because he had no where else to go. Becker told me his daughter is pregnant with the offender's baby, so they feel obligated to help him with his homeless situation. Becker told me he was providing a roof over the offender's head; however, he made it clear that the offender was to try and find a job in order to stay with them. Becker said he was helping the offender gain employment, but he wasn't trying to actually find a job.

Tonight, Becker said things came to a head when the offender did not turn in proper paperwork to the employment agency. Becker said they were arguing when the offender refused to hand him his cell phone. According to Becker, the offender said he was going to use it to call about a job. Becker states the time for making phone calls was over and that he demanded his cell phone repeatedly. The offender refused and he attempted to take it from him. Becker and Ivers state that the offender became belligerent. Ivers stepped in and demanded the offender leave the house. At that point, they advised the offender took a swing at Ivers and hit her in the head (causing the visible injury). During the incident, the offender also ran into Becker's mother, Hendrix, and knocked her to the ground. None of the parties believed this was intentional; however, they state it is part of the behavior problems exhibited by the offender.

Officer D. Clifton located the offender and Becker's daughter at Garvin and Florida. The offender was in possession of marijuana (for which he was cited). Initially, he denied anything physical occurred; however, he later said Becker pushed him while he was seated in a rolling office chair. Becker's daughter said she saw her father push the offender when he was asking for his cell phone. She said she didn't see anything else that occurred, but was present during incident. Becker and Ivers were very concerned about the offender's behavior. They were given a case number and advised how to proceed in obtaining a protective order.
