	I was dispatched to 1015 N. Main St. (Phillips 66 Xpress Mart) in reference to a suspicious circumstances run. Dispatch advised a female caller said she had been held against her will by three black males, and assaulted. I arrived and met with the victim, Brittney Davis, inside the store. Davis was extremely nervous, sweating, and acted very paranoid. I asked Davis to tell me about the incident from the beginning. Davis said a few weeks ago she met a black male, she only knows as "Geezy" (OF #1), at the Marathon gas station at Heidelberg and Louisiana. She said he gave her a ride that day, and he seemed nice. Davis said on this particular incident she had talked to Geezy and he picked her up from 1000 Fulton Parkway (Grandview Towers) on 040715 around 0000 hours. She said Geezy drives a light brown (tan), Toyota SUV, four door, and said it was in good shape. Davis said Geezy was only supposed to take her to the Marathon gas station on First Ave. near Allens Lane to get some drinks. She said they went to the gas station and she used $5.00 cash to pay for gas. Davis said she dropped a ten dollar bill on the floor and Geezy grabbed it and wouldn't give it back to her. She said Geezy drove to pick up guy (unknown black male/OF #2), and she remembers going by the Chuckles gas station and Rally's at Virginia and 41. She thinks they then went northbound on 41. Davis said they drove for a little while and ended up at a residence where Geezy's father lives. She said the house was a brick house and nice. Davis said she, Geezy, and his friend went inside the residence. She said Geezy's father (OF #3) was there, and he looked to be in his 70s. Davis said Geezy also introduced her to a black female (OF #4) at the residence as his sister. She said Geezy, OF #2, OF #3, and OF #4 were all smoking "crack". Davis said she did not smoke crack, but had smoked some "meth" right after Geezy picked her up. After a while Davis said she could not find her phone, and began searching for it. She saw OF #2 hold a phone that looked just like her's. She confronted him and he denied it was her phone. Davis said she became scared at this point and just decided to not worry about the phone even though she thought it was her's. Davis said OF #2 left a short time later and never came back. She said Geezy kept asking her if she was going to call the police over the phone. He told her he didn't need the police coming to his house and got mad at her. She said the sister sat next to her on the couch and told her she wasn't going anywhere. Davis said she got up a few times and the sister grabbed her and pulled her back to the couch. I observed some superficial scratches on Davis` right arm, and some bruises on both of her upper arms. Davis said a while later she asked Geezy if he could take her home or if she had to walk. She said Geezy gave her a ride back to Grandview Towers around 0700 hours. She said she walked to Grandy`s on First Ave., then to Octapharma, trying to use their phone. She walked to the Phillips 66 Xpress Mart on N. Main St. to meet officers.
