LW 1510734	Roy, Alexander Cyril (W M, 24) VICTIM of Battery-simple Assault Other [am] (C), at 4321 N Us Hwy 41, Evansville, IN, between 00:01, 05/21/2015 and 00:15, 05/21/2015. Reported: 05/21/2015. I was dispatched to the above address in reference to a Battery Report. On scene, I spoke to the victim, later identified as Alexander Roy. Roy stated he and a friend rented a room at the Motel 6 at the above location. Roy stated after going to bed, his friend felt something crawling on them and found what he believed to be a "bed bug". Roy stated he went downstairs to demand a new room or a refund from the front desk clerk, later identified as Taryn Oller (listed as Witness # 1). Roy said he was given a new room, but after checking it out decided to get a refund. Roy said he returned to the desk, and met the manager later identified as Paul Shah (listed as Suspect # 1). Roy added that he and Shah got into an argument about the insects and Shah gave him a refund and told him to leave the property. Roy claimed Shah hit him on his hands as they were arguing, after which he went outside and called police. I could not observe and marks or swelling on Roy`s hands and he declined medical treatment at this time. I then spoke to Oller. Oller stated Roy had came down to the desk complaining of bedbugs in his room. Oller stated Roy agreed to being moved to a different room, but returned a short time later asking for a refund. Oller continued that she called Shah who came downstairs to give Roy the refund. Oller stated Roy began arguing with Shah about calling the Health Department and reporting the hotel. Oller stated Shah slapped Roy`s refund into his hand and told him to leave the property. Oller stated there was no further physical contact between Shah and Roy, and she believed Roy was "blowing things out of proportion". I then spoke to Shah who stated he came downstairs to issue Roy his refund, and was confronted by Roy about the insects. Shah stated Roy was irate and unreasonable. Shah claimed Roy was causing a disturbance and began arguing with him and threatening to call the Health Department and sue Shah. Shah stated he pushed the money into Roy`s hand and told him to leave the property.		CONDIFF, M. V.

Reported: 05/21/2015. I made contact with the manager of Grandview Towers on scene, identified as Linda Johnson. Johnson stated she had been contacted by a subject today, identified as Donald Murfin, in reference a stolen refrigerator, from the property. Murfin had told Johnson that his roommate, identified as Suspect 1, had stolen a refrigerator and possible other items from the property. Murfin gave Johnson a serial and model number, from the refrigerator. Johnson confirmed Suspect 1 had been a temporary employee of Grandview Towers, last year. Johnson then confirmed there was a missing refrigerator from the property, with the same serial number, given by Murfin: Johnson wasn't aware the refrigerator had been stolen until today. I made contact with Murfin on the phone. Murfin stated to me Suspect 1 had been renting a room, at his residence. Murfin explained Suspect 1 had assaulted him recently. Murfin then told me Suspect 1 had told him, he had stolen items, from Grandview Towers, inside his room. Murfin stated there were multiple parts and items, inside Suspect 1's room currently. Murfin explained he hasn't scene Suspect 1, in several days. I made contact with Det. Shirley, in reference the incident. I advised Murfin on the phone to not move the property. The only item known to be stolen at this time, was the refrigerator. The property wasn't recovered at this time. No contact was made with Suspect 1.		BOURLAND, A. L.

LW 1510790 Burglary Of A Dwelling	Walmart VICTIM of Theft Shoplifting &lt; $750 (C), at 335 S Red Bank Rd, Evansville, IN, between 17:00, 05/21/2015 and 17:24, 05/21/2015. Reported: 05/21/2015. I was dispatched to the listed address in reference to a shoplifting that occurred. Loss prevention advised that Walmart Security had him in custody. I arrived on scene and the RP advised me that he followed the OF around the store, as he recognized the subject from when he stole a tent earlier in the week (15-10537). The RP advised that he saw the OF select a dremel tool from hardware along with some socks and other personal items from clothing sections. The OF then picked up some grocery items and proceeded to the checkout. Loss prevention saw that the items purchased cost more than what the OF rang up, so they stopped him and found that they had placed bar codes to bottles of shaving cream on the dremel and socks and scanned them to make it look like he was not stealing anything. The OF admitted to the theft after being read his Miranda warning on camera. He also admitted to committing the theft earlier in the week from the same store. He was cited and barred from the property. The total cost of items stolen was $112.70.		TAYLOR, M. O.

Reported: 05/21/2015. Officers were called to 123 Main St. to meet with security reference windows that had been shot and damaged. Officers arrived and met with Alex Kempf, security. Kempf advised that the cleaning crew told him that two windows have been damaged. The first window faces north toward main street and is approximately a half inch thick and approximately 10 feet wide by 30 feet tall. There is a hole in the window that appears to have been created by either a BB pellet or a small caliber bullet. There was minor wood scratches on the staircase due to the projectile making it through the window. The second window faces south and is approximately 5 feet by 10 feet. The second window is double pane. The damage to this one appears to have been from a BB pellet. The projectile only damaged the first pane and did not make it through the second pane. Kempf stated he believes the damage was caused within the past week, but is not positive.		HERRMANN, E.
