Case #	Description (A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
	officer who spoke with the listed victim, S. Bazzard. Bazzard stated he and the other listed victim, T. Campbell were outside of Campbell`s vehicle at Akin Park smoking. Bazzard stated while they were smoking two black males approached them. Bazzard stated one of the black males walked up to Campbell, and was conversating with him, and the other black male walked up to him and did not say anything. Bazzard stated as the subject was approaching Campbell he noticed the subject was "messing with his waistband". Bazzard stated shortly after the black male was speaking with Campbell, he heard the black male tell Campbell " give me everything you got" and pulled out a silver revolver. Bazzard stated he then grabbed the subject that was next to him and began pushing him toward the subject with the gun. Bazzard stated the subject with the gun then ran toward him and the other black male. Bazzard stated the subject he had a hold of was able to free himself away from him and dropped to the ground. The subject with the gun then pointed it at Bazzard. Bazzard stated he grabbed the barrel end of the revolver and a struggle ensued. Bazzard stated the gun went off and struck him in his left forearm. Bazzard stated he then grabbed the revolver with his right hand, and the revolver discharged again, but did not hit anyone. Bazzard stated the two black males then ran from the scene, and Campbell drove him to his residence. Bazzard stated he called his girlfriend, A. Husk, and told her to meet him on Covert Ave because he had been shot. Bazzard stated Husk transported him to St. Marys Emergency room for treatment for his gunshot wound. Crime Scene was called for photos, and a detective was called out to interview Bazzard. Bazzard suffered a fracture to his forearm from the gunshot wound.
