Alc-public Intox [bm]
	Officers were dispatched to 1030 N Fourth Avenue in reference to intoxicated subjects in the alley. Officers arrived on scene and met with the RP, who stated that the two subjects were trying to get into a residence that did not belong to them and appeared to be very intoxicated. I observed the OF peek his head around a yard barn in the back yard of 1119 W Oregon Street and then try to walk away quickly. The RP advised officers that the subjects were in the yard that I saw the OF in. We made contact with the OF and the IO who were in the back yard. The OF was unsteady on his feet, smelled strongly of an alcoholic beverage, had watery bloodshot eyes, and appeared to be under the influence of methamphetamine. The OF and the IO were both arrested and transported to the jail. I searched the OF at the jail and asked him if he had anything else on him that I missed. The OF advised me that he did not have anything. I then advised him that if the jail staff found anything illegal on his person, he would be charged with

Reported: 05/04/2015. On 050415 at 0004 hours, I was dispatched to 300 S. Lincoln Park Dr. in reference to an injured female there that could not move. I arrived at the address at 0008 hours, and found the victim, Micheal Mounds, walking around in the drive-way talking on her cell phone. A male, later identified as the offender, was standing on the sidewalk at the end of the drive-way. Mounds stated that she had arrived at the house at around 2330 hours in an attempt to talk to the offender about some medical and relationship issues. When she attempted to enter his apartment, the offender pushed her down to the ground, then picked her up and threw her down the concrete stairs leading up to the apartment porch. Mounds was complaining of pain to her right ankle. There was a small abrasion about a half inch long on top of her right foot, but there were no other visible injuries. When I spoke to the offender to get his version of what had happened, he stated that he was inside his apartment and had received several lengthy emails from Mounds. When she showed up at his door, he was standing in the doorway to keep her from entering his apartment. Mounds grabbed him by the arm and attempted to remove him from the doorway so she could get past him. When he pulled away from her, she fell backwards. He stated that she then crawled down the stairs. He had no injuries. AMR #1112 arrived at the scene, but Mounds refused any medical care or to be transported to the hospital.		BURRIS, D. Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW	The owner of the duplex, the victim is presently in jail as is the last occupant, his daughter Crystal Clark. Fire Investigator K. Garrett advised that the duplex fire appeared to be intentionally set. 1/2 of duplex was destroyed and/or damaged by the fire. She advised it appeared that unknown subject(s) had tried to make it look like an electrical fire that started near a junction box under the house in the back. However there is no electricity to the duplex. Det. Holden was contacted in the Detective Office and advised of incident.
LW 1509278 Burglary - Attempted	Firemaster VICTIM of Burglary - Attempted (C), at 5300 E Morgan Ave, Evansville, IN, between 04:28, 05/04/2015 and 04:35, 05/04/2015. Reported: 05/04/2015. Officer was originally dispatched to 5300 Morgan Ave, Firemaster, around 0430hrs in regards to a perimeter alarm. Upon arriving all visible doors were and windows were secure and a disposition was given based on this. At approximately 0525 hrs Officers were dispatched back to 5300 Morgan Ave because an employee had arrived and found an open window. Upon arriving I spoke with RP-M Hughes. Mr Hughes said that when he went upstairs to his office he found an open window. He said that he didn't believe that entry was made because nothing was found disturbed. I went upstairs with Hughes. The only access to the window from the outside is by getting onto the roof. The open window wasn't visible from the ground due to it being blocked by an A/C unit. Hughes believes that it would have to be someone who has worked on the roof before, otherwise very few people would know there is a window here. The window had marks on it from being pried open and the lock was broke. Officer Condiff went out onto the roof to see if there was evidence of how someone had gotten onto the roof. None was found. Hughes viewed video and a person could be seen walking in front of the store around 0428am but due to poor video quality you couldn't get any descriptors.		WILSON, M. R.

Reported: 05/04/2015. Ron (VI) and Joe (IO) are co-workers. Ron leaves the listed van and trailer parked in the driveway of 1901 Covert. They are not attached and he uses both of them as a means to store work items. He said he does not drive the van and the trailer stays in the driveway. He leaves the van unlocked with a key under the driver`s seat. He keeps the trailer locked. This morning at about 6:45, Joe was driving to work when he saw the van and trailer parked (unoccupied) at the corner of Rotherwood and Cass. He assumed that Ron parked them there because he thought maybe Ron had a job there. Ron showed-up to work a short time later and Joe told him about the van/trailer. Ron then went and got the van/trailer and drove it back to work (1901 Covert). He then looked through the van and saw that the inside had been ransacked, that the listed tiles and saw were missing, and that the key was gone. There were no pry marks or any other damage to the trailer. No suspects. Crime Scene Tech B. Gentry processed the van.		FENDEL, W. M.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1509318	Victim listed was north bound on First Ave approaching Colonial Ave. She did not know in which lane she was driving. She says that she hit another vehicle. She was unsure where the other vehicle was at the time of the wreck. IO was in the parking lot of the Schnuck`s supermarket and heard the collision. She says that she saw this Cadillac and a possible Hyundai SUV involved in the collision. IO says that she had the w/m driver of the SUV (hit and run driver) pull to the Schnuck`s lot. She says that the driver agreed to drive to the other vehicle, but then fled the scene. From the debris on the road and damage to the victim`s vehicle, it looks as if the hit and run vehicle was in the left hand turn lane of the north bound lane of First Ave at Colonial, to turn into the Schnucks complex. It looks as if the victim rear ended the hit and run vehicle with her left front of her car into the right rear of the hit and run vehicle. Victim`s vehicle was towed by Tri State Towing.		BOURLAND, A. L.

LW 1509381 Fc Identity Deception	Wilcox, Lynn Elizabeth (W F, 58) VICTIM of Fc Identity Deception (C), at 480 Applewood Ct, Evansville, IN, between 18:00, 04/19/2015 and 22:42, 05/04/2015. Reported: 05/04/2015. On April 19 2015, the victim Wilcox got a message on her phone to pay money or an encryption would be loaded on her phone. She closed out the message and ignored it, thinking it was a scam or virus. On the 22nd, she started getting many messages from men who never message her. They were all implying she had sent them messages of a mature nature. Wilcox began to realize something was wrong and some friends began to say her Facebook profile had been hacked. She was able to see that a female had taken over her Facebook page, loading her own photos in on Wilcox`s profile yet keeping some of Wilcox`s family photos. She thinks some important family photos and videos have been deleted. Wilcox was able to view the profile but unable login and make changes. She has tried unsuccessfully to reach a representative from Facebook to help her. Wilcox said she spoke with deputy prosecutor Lugo and he advised to have a report made. Wilcox has a lot of details of disturbing occurrences related to this hacking since the 22nd. She is eager to prosecute, and was given a case number to follow up. See officer narrative for suspect info.		FAIR, D. A.

LW 1509379 Narc-poss Paraphernalia [am]	Society VICTIM of Narc-poss Paraphernalia [am] (C), at 214 S Bedford Ave, Evansville, IN, on 05/04/2015, 23:15. Reported: 05/04/2015. On today`s date, we were dispatched to 214 S Bedford Ave. in reference to a narcotics complaint. The caller, Sarah Vandeventer, said she lives at this address with the suspect, L. Lincoln. She said she has been letting Lincoln stay here for the last couple weeks. Part of the agreement that Lincoln stays with her is that he does not do drugs in the house. Vandeventer said Lincoln has been smoking marijuana in the house and does not want it to continue. She said he had some marijuana in his possession. Vandeventer let us in the residence and Lincoln was laying on the living room couch. Ofc. Delano asked Lincoln if he had any marijuana on him and he said yes and retrieved a white and tan smoking pipe and a small baggie of a green leafy substance from his front pocket. Lincoln was issued a citation for possession and given a court date to appear for charges.		HARRINGTON, M.
