Guadagno stated that he was getting the coffee ready for the evening and observed the suspect walk down the isle where the beer is located and then start walking toward the register. Guadagno stated that he believed the suspect was going to get in the line to purchase the beer, but instead Guadagno heard the bell for the door and observed the suspect exit the business with the beer under his arm. Guadagno said that he went outside to try and stop the suspect but was unable to catch him. Guadagno said that as he was exiting the business he saw the suspect run east behind the business. I was advised that the business has had three cases of beer stolen within the last week and they believe that it is the same subject from the other times. The business had video of the suspect entering the business and stated that they would call if he returns again.		BETZ, D. J.

Reported: 05/16/2015. Myself and Officer Lowe observed a silver Dodge 4-door vehicle make a right turn from Missouri to Elsas with coming to a stop. When we caught up to it the car had parked on Oregon. When we drove by, the driver was still in the driver seat. It was a white male with glasses. We circled around the block and found the driver sitting on the steps of 110 E. Oregon St. The driver said his name was Justin Wayne Vivado and then gave us two different DOB`s. Was unable to get a driver status back from Illinois. I ran the registration and it came back with a driver license number. I ran it out of Illinois and it came back suspended. I then realized the middle name was different and so was the DOB. We then transported the male to the Vanderburgh Co. Jail. At the jail, the driver finally gave us his correct name and DOB. He had two warrants out of Vanderburgh Co. We checked his photo in RMS to verify it was correct.	(C)	BROWN, D. R.
