LW 1510081 Invasion Of Privacy [am]	Boyd-davis, Lisa Denise (B F, 49) VICTIM of Invasion Of Privacy [am] (C), at 2513 Sunburst Blvd, Evansville, IN, between 03:48, 05/13/2015 and 03:52, 05/13/2015. Reported: 05/13/2015. Victim has a protective order against the offender. The offender came to the victims house and sat outside the front door, refusing to leave. He was gone when officers arrived. Victim called a second time and officers located the offender knocking on her door and yelling at her to answer the door. Offender was highly intoxicated. He has also been barred from this address previously.	SEIBERT, C. S.
LW 1510082 Theft From Motor Vehicle < $750	Smith, Amanda Lynn (W F, 30) VICTIM of Theft From Motor Vehicle < $750 (C), at 1505 Henning Ave, Evansville, IN, between 05:10, 05/13/2015 and 05:18, 05/13/2015. Reported: 05/13/2015. Chris and Amanda called in stating their cars had been vandalized and Amanda had items taken from her vehicle. Chris advised when he came outside he noticed someone in Amanda vehicle. When the offender saw him he took off running back to the West in the alley. The window to Amanda vehicle had been broken out and her purse was removed. She later found it in the alley where Chris had seen the offender run to. Amanda`s`s coin purse had been removed along with the listed items. The window to Chris`s truck, that was sitting behind the address, had also been broken out but nothing was taken. The offender was not located and the victims advised they are unsure of where he could be located. A case number was issued and both were advised to call back in if other items were found to be missing.	ELFREICH, C. A.
LW 1510083 Burglary - Attempted	Rohrbacher, James Edward (W M, 69) VICTIM of Burglary - Attempted (C), at 2301 W Franklin St, Evansville, IN, between 19:00, 05/12/2015 and 07:12, 05/13/2015. Reported: 05/13/2015. I was dispatched to 2301 W. Franklin St. apartment A in reference to an attempted burglary. I arrived and met with the owner/victim of the building, Jim Rohrbacher. Rohrbacher said he uses apartment A as his business office. He said he was last at the office around 1900 hours on 051215. He said he returned to the office on 051315 around 0700 hours and discovered someone had tried to gain entry into his office. It looked like someone had taken some kind of prying tool and tried to pry the door open. There was damage to the door and to the wooden door frame, but no entry was made into the office. Rohrbacher said he has a tenant/IO #1, Andrew Seibert, in apartment C that might have possible suspect information. We knocked on Seibert`s door and IO #2, Justin Williams, answered the door. Williams said Seibert had already left for work. Rohrbacher asked Justin if he knew anything about the attempted break in to the office. Williams said it was probably the suspect because he had been at Seibert`s apartment the night before. Williams said the suspect was asked to leave the apartment because of his behavior. Williams said the suspect is homeless, and they let him stay there sometimes. Rohrbacher then called Seibert on his cell phone. Seibert confirmed Williams suspicions that the suspect probably attempted to break in the office. I gave	SMITH, K. E.

LW 1510124	Carter-vasquez, James Marcus (W M, 22) VICTIM of Battery-hff Domestic [am] (C), at 299 N Barker Ave/w Franklin St, Evansville, IN, between 19:00, 05/12/2015 and 19:30, 05/12/2015. Reported: 05/13/2015. Carter-Vasquez phoned 911 stating that he dropped off his girlfriend's vehicle at Shoe Carnival on the west side. He claimed his girlfriend (whom he has lived with and shares a child) told him that she filed the vehicle as stolen. The vehicle was not reported stolen; however, there was an active BOL on the vehicle for an unauthorized control. During our discussion via telephone, he elaborated that there had been a physical altercation the previous day. Carter-Vasquez said he usually drove the Trailblazer, which is registered to his girlfriend, to work at Azteca. Yesterday, he said his girlfriend decided that she wanted the truck. He told her he was taking the truck anyway because he needed to get to work. At that point, Carter-Vasquez said she threatened to call police and report the vehicle stolen. Carter-Vasquez admitted to taking her cell phone at that time and leaving the area, but said that he told her to follow him to another location so they could talk. Carter-Vasquez said he pulled over near Franklin and Barker prior to arriving at the agreed upon location, but that his girlfriend shoved him to get into the truck. He said he pushed her back and she fell to the ground. He said he tried to help her up; however, she got to the vehicle and tried to take the keys and struck him several times in the face. He said he had minor injuries to his face. He wished to document this incident. Today, Carter-Vasquez said he received a text message from his girlfriend stating she had obtained a protective order, but he had not yet been served with one. The system did not indicate a battery report had been filed by the female. Lastly, he inquired how to obtain his items still in the female's possession. I met with the involved female at Shoe Carnival to recover the truck. The female did not mention the battery until I inquired. She claimed he shoved her to		BROWN, S. E.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1510145	The suspect had shoved the victim to the bed and was trying to hold her down. He was threatening to kill her and damage her property. The victim had to claw at the suspect to get him to get off her. She said he had scratches on his face from her trying to get away. She had no injuries. The kids were not present. The suspect then took the victim`s van and left the house. She later spotted the van while out looking for it, on Covert Avenue. She told the suspect to take the van back to her house. He spit at her and again threatened to kill her. She took off in her other vehicle. The suspect got back in the van and began chasing her, trying to ram her, West On Covert to Garvin. The victim was able to call 911 and stopped at Heidelbach/Illinois at Liquor Locker to wait for police. The suspect left he area. The van was located back at the victim`s residence but the suspect had left. Victim was advised to follow up with Prosecutor and obtain a Protective Order.		HIRSHMAN, B. K.

Animal Neglect Incident	[missing name] VICTIM of Animal Neglect Incident (C), at 306 E Louisiana St, Evansville, IN, on 05/13/2015, 22:16. Reported: 05/13/2015.
LW 1510148	Police were sent to 306 E Louisiana St for a subject refusing to leave. While we were doing a stand-by there, I saw a small cage in the living room with a duck and a rabbit in it. There was no room for them to move around, they had no food or water and they both appeared to be filthy and in need of attention. The residents at the home said the animals did not belong to them and Brooks absolutely did not want them there. Due to their poor condition and neglectful state of living, I requested that Animal Control take custody of the animals. I transported them to the shelter. Society VICTIM of Omvwi-b A C .15% Or More [am] (C), at 4799 Covert Ave/s Green River Rd, Evansville, IN, on 05/13/2015, 23:12. After the vehicle stopped, the back up lights came on and the vehicle started to roll toward my vehicle rapidly. I put my car into reverse and backed away to avoid being struck and activated my siren to get the drivers attention. He did stop before striking my car. I made contact with the driver and immediatly smelled the strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on and about his breath and person. His eyes were red and bloodshot and his speech was slurred. He fumbled getting his license out of his wallet several times and could not find his registration. A county unit arrived to assist and they located his registration. When I attempted to preform the SFST with the defendant, he informed me that he has Cerebal Palsey and would be unable to complete the tests. I asked him to recite the alphabet. He could not recite it correctly even after being given two chances. He was offered a PBT which indicated a BAC of 0.208. He was read the implied consent card and agreed to take the test. During the ride to the jail, he fell asleep in the rear of my car. While getting out of the car, he vomited. Officer Kennedy was operating the certified test. While waiting for the mandated 20 minutes to pass after the 1st vomiting, the defendant vomited again. Another 20 minutes. Officer Kennedy was able to get a good test on the defendant. The results on instrument 010861 indicated the defendants BAC was 0.151 at 0054 hours.		HIRSHMAN, B. K.

Reported: 05/14/2015. Williams came back to Robinson`s address and used his key to let himself in. He took the key off his key ring and threw it to Robinson. He became aggressive and grabbed her by the hair, then later punched her in the face
LW 1510151	Wood, Joyce Marie (W F, 48) VICTIM of Battery-hff Domestic [am] (C), at 1817 Old Business 41, Evansville, IN, between 01:00, 05/14/2015 and 01:02, 05/14/2015. Reported: 05/14/2015. Officers were dispatched to the listed location in reference to a domestic battery report. Joyce called in and advised she and her husband, Thomas, were having a dispute. Joyce told officers that she and Thomas have only been married for about 45 days and they have had nothing but problems. Joyce said Thomas likes to drink, gets drunk, and then beats up on her. She stated tonight he got upset and threw a whiskey bottle across the hotel room. She also stated he threw her phone and pushed her. Joyce advised she had no marks on her tonight but that she has received bruises in the past from when Thomas has hit on her. I spoke with Thomas who denied ever touching Joyce and he stated he was only upset because Joyce had gone to a room with another man. Thomas agreed to leave for the night. Joyce was advised a report was being taken and to call back if they had anymore problems.		ELFREICH, C. A.
