Reported: 05/01/2015. I was contacted by Principal Mrs. Burton from Harper in reference to the victim, Ashley Cashen and the suspect being at the school and involved in a disturbance. When I arrived the suspect had already left the scene. I spoke to the Ms. Cashen and she stated that she had arrived to pick up her son, whom the suspect is the father of, and observed that the suspect was parked in front of the school. Ms. Cashen advised that it was her time custody of the child and she parked and exited her vehicle to get her son. Ms. Cashen advised that the suspect approached her and started yelling cussing and pushing her as she walked toward the school doors. Ms. Cashen advised she had a protective order against the suspect due to previous violence and he continued to push her. Ms. Cashen advised that the suspect refused to stop and in fear for her safety she used a stun gun to make him back away and stop pushing her. I verified there was an active protective order in NCIC cause number 82D031307PO003018 that expired 08/16/15. Also, Mrs. Burton advised that when Ms. Cashen and the suspect came into the office she heard him loudly call her a "bitch".	DEEG, D. E.

LW 1509122 Battery-simple Assault Other [am]	The offender threatened to kill both victims due to an incident that occurred earlier today. Headings, Melissa Theresa (W F, 26) VICTIM of Battery-simple Assault Other [am] (C), at 1415 E Sycamore St, Evansville, IN, between 17:50, 05/01/2015 and 17:55, 05/01/2015. Reported: 05/01/2015. Victim 1, R.M., stated the offender, who is her son knocked on her door this afternoon asking to come inside. R.M. stated her daughter and Victim 2, M.H., has a protective order in force against the offender and refused to allow him inside. R.M. also stated that she could tell by his behavior that he was extremely intoxicated. R.M. stated she told the offender that he had to leave. R.M. stated the offender then kicked the glass window next to the door and shattered it. R.M. stated that the offender then pushed to door open on her and forced his way inside of their home. R.M. stated she told the offender to leave but he refused to do so. R.M. stated the offender is homeless and told her that he just wanted to come inside long enough to charge his cell phone. R.M. stated the offender became enraged at the fact that his own mother was kicking him out of her house. R.M. stated the offender then punched a hole in the drywall in the living room. Victim 2, M.H., stated she told the offender she was going to call the police if he did not leave and showed the offender that she had her phone in her hands. M.H. stated that the offender told her "I would like to see you try." M.H. stated the offender then grabbed her cell phone out of her hands and threw it across the living room which prevented her from contacting 911. M.H. stated that she was laying on the couch. M.H. stated the offender jumped on her stomach and tried striking her with his fist in her chest and face. M.H. stated that the offender did manage to strike her in the face and chin. While speaking with M.H. I could see a small amount of fresh blood under her chin and I asked her if that was where she had been hit. M.H. replied "yes, the cut was from his nail." R.M. stated that she pulled the offender off of her daughter and he was last seen fleeing East on Sycamore toward UofE. I confirmed M.H. has an active protective order issued against the offender and that it has been served, refer to 82D03-1501-PO-000114. I offered to contact an ambulance for M.H. and she declined and said that she would have her mother take her to the hospital to be treated for any possible injuries. I gave both victims a case number and informed them to contact the prosecutors office to follow up with charges. I checked the area that the offender was last seen however I was unable to		JACKSON, J. A.
