Reported: 05/18/2015. I, Officer S. P. Smith was dispatched with Officer D. M. Smith to a disorderly conduct at 2505 Sunburst Blvd for two black females in the hallway threatening everyone. When we arrived we could hear a female yelling and screaming from the stairwell in the back of the building. Kenetrea Winston then came down the stairwell carrying a cup of beer. She was unsteady and her feet, she was slurring her speech and she had the smell of alcoholic beverage on her breath. We asked if she lived in the apartment complex and K. Winston became argumentative. She stated that she did not live in the apartment building and was here drinking with her "peeps". She was told to sit down on the steps but she refused. She had to be forced to sit on the steps. She was asked how old she was and she stated that she "was grown". She was again asked how old she was and she stated that she "was grown". We attempted to place her into handcuff and she resisted. She had to be taken to the ground to be placed into handcuffs. As we were taking her to the patrol car she was yelling and screaming even after she was repeatedly told to be quite. People were coming out of the apartments to see had all the noise was about. When she was being searched incident to arrest I found a plastic bag in her left hand pants pocket containing a green lefty substance that field tested positive for THC and had a field weight of approximately 3.5 grams. Winston was complaining of pain to her left shoulder and had slight swelling on the right side of her face under below her eye. She was taken to Deaconess hospital and was medically cleared. She was then transported and booked at VCCC.		SMITH, S. P.

Reported: 05/18/2015. Officer dispatched to Wal-Mart west in reference to a shoplift. The reporting party and loss prevention employee, Parris Ramsey, states she observed a male pushing a cart containing a very large tent and mouthwash. Ramsey states patrons rarely buy tents of this size at Wal-Mart so she became suspicious. The male selected multiple food items before proceeding to the self check aisles. At the self check the male rang up his items and proceeded to exit the store through the grocery exits; however, he was stopped by a greeter and asked for his receipt. The greeter could not account for the tent on the receipt supplied by the gentleman. The greeter directed him back inside the store to pay for the item, but the male simply walked to the other side of the store and walked out the general merchandise exit. Ramsey made contact with the greeter shortly after her interaction with the offender. When Ramsey learned the tent was not paid for, she followed the offender to his vehicle and retrieved a license plate. She observed the vehicle to be an earlier model grey Ford Focus with a bike rack on the rear hatchback of the vehicle. The vehicle license returned to the listed offender. Upon review of the surveillance video the offender did scan the tent; however, the tent's UPC label had been covered up with a UPC for after shave worth $2.12. Even after the male was told he would need to step back to a register to make payment for the tent, he chose to exit the store without making such payment.	BROWN, S. E.
