LW 1510963 Burglary- Breaks & Enters W/intent Commit Felony/ Theft	intoxicated. He admitted to drinking most of the day. Johnson reported the following: He went to bed when we left. His wife later came into his room accusing him of cheating on her. He kept telling her that he was not cheating but she would not let it go. She became angry, grabbed him by the neck and scratched him with her fingernails. He showed me his neck. There was 4-5 inch superficial thin cut mark with a small amount of dried blood on the right side of his neck. It looked like it was made by a blade. He showed me a scratch on his wrist too, but I pointed out the fact that it was already scabbed and he conceded it was not new. Johnson said he wanted his wife removed from the home. I explained i would have to take her to jail. He said he had to work at 0400 hrs. I asked who would take care of their 3 kids if his wife went to jail. He said there was nobody to take of them. He said he would have to take the day off work to watch them. He said he did not want her to go to jail but he thought he had no other option, that his wife needed to learn a lesson. I spoke to the suspect. She was not intoxicated and her story was nothing like Erick's She reported the following: She was asleep on the couch. Erick came in the room and asked her to come to bed with him. She said, "NO" because she was already asleep and wanted to be left alone. Johnson climbed on top of his wife and began masturbating near her face. She pushed him off of her. He went to the bathroom, got a small razorblade and began to cut his neck. He was telling her he was going to kill himself if she would not sleep with him. He then went to his room, got a plastic grocery bag, put it over his head and acted like he going to suffocate himself. He took it off and started making a video to say goodbye to his mom. She said he deleted it before I arrived. She did not want to press charges, and just wanted to go back to sleep on the couch. I spoke to Erick again about the fact that their stories were not even close. he was insistent that his story was true and he wanted to press charges. He said his wife is bi-polar and he wants her to get help. I placed the suspect in cuffs and walked her to my car. Once I did that, Johnson changed his mind and said he did not want to press charges. He asked that I not take her to jail. He said he would go to a friend's house to sleep for a couple hrs before he gets picked up for work. After consulting Sgt. D.J. Thompson, i released the suspect. she went back inside to take care of her children. Johnson got dressed and left to walk to a friends house. I gave him a case number and advised how to follow up if he changes his mind Renshaw, Nichole Delane (W F, 38) VICTIM of Burglary- Breaks & Enters W/intent Commit Felony/ Theft (C), at 1110 E Negley Ave, Evansville, IN, between 03:00, 05/24/2015 and 03:01, 05/24/2015. Reported: 05/24/2015. Thomas Theis said his neighbor, Charles Carey, has three yappy dogs who bark constantly, inside the house and especially when he lets them out. Thomas said he and his wife tried to enjoy the day outside their garage. They could not hear their own conversation due to the yappy dogs. Thomas said he had enough and told Charles what he thought of his yappy dogs. Jonathan took offense the remarks Thomas said to his dad, Charles. Jonathan then told Thomas he would kill them, according to Thomas. Thomas said a few years back they came home from a trip and their garage was burned down. Thomas said he takes Jonathans threats seriously. I spoke to Charles and Jonathan. Their story matches Thomas`s. Jonathan said he said some things to Thomas he with he had not. Jonathan was upset that Thomas had threatened his elderly father. Charles said they have tried to get along over the years. Charlie said he had some cats, until he caught Thomas shooting them with a BB gun. Charles said he tried to accommodate the neighbors sleep schedule with the dogs, early or late, until Thomas`s wife retired and they complained he woke them up early. This is a classic neighbor dispute that has gone on over three years. Reported: 05/24/2015. The homeowner/victim stated she received a call from the neighbor who lives next to her unoccupied property and was informed that someone was stealing items from her garage. The witness stated she watched as a white male pushed a lawnmower out of the garage. The witness then confronted the white male and began videotaping him on her cell phone. The video was very difficult to see and the only information obtained from the video was the offender was a 30-40 year old white male driving a silver Chevy pickup truck. Most of the offender's face could not be seen due to darkness. The witness stated the offender told her he was working on his car dolly and that several items at the residence were his. The witness stated the offender then left the scene. The witness called the homeowner to inform her of the incident. The homeowner's husband and son went to look for the offender. When I arrived, I spoke with the homeowner who stated that her husband noticed last night that someone had entered the garage and took several items. The homeowner also stated her sons car that is parked next to the garage had several items stolen from it. She said there was a car dolly that was dropped off in the yard on Friday that had also been taken. The homeowner believed the offender had taken the car dolly sometime after Friday that the witness saw hooked to the rear of the offenders truck when she confronted him. I asked the homeowner why she did not call police when they noticed items missing last night, and she stated that she figured the offender would come back and that they wanted to catch him. Several family members arrived on scene who had items stored in the garage. The homeowner stated no one lived in the house currently because it is in the process of being remodeled due to a fire last July. As of the time of this report, the list of stolen items included: a lawnmower, a bicycle, car dolly, generator, welder, and several automotive parts. The homeowner was unaware of which items were taken last night and which were taken tonight. She stated they have not gone through the entire garage to check for all of the missing items.
