	I was dispatched to 7201 E Indiana St for a theft report and spoke to the RP. The RP stated that two white males entered the business and complained about the food. The RP was able to calm them down and get them to put an order in. She told them to just calm down because it was a family establishment. After they got their food they started eating it then called the RP back out. They complained that the silverware was dirty and threw it at the RP and asked if she would eat with it. She gave them their bill and asked them to pay it and leave. One of the males then threw a salt shaker at the RP and hit her with it. They then walked out of the restaurant, without paying, and crumpled up the bill and threw it on the ground. They left in a red Chevy Cruze. The RP was given a case number.
