Battery - Domestic - Presence Of Child <16	Officers were dispatched a domestic violence report. While enroute, dispatch advised the male was back on seen. Myself and Officer Lowe did not hear any noise from the house and checked around the house first. Before I knocked, I could hear a female talking behind the front door. I knocked and the victim, Leslie Walker, came out onto the porch. I asked if her husband was still on scene. She said no. Leslie told us while she was on the phone with 911, her husband grabbed a shirt and left.
	Leslie said her husband had been in a bad mood for the last few days. She was putting her sons to bed and the 7 year old whispered something to her about his step dad. Shortly after that, her husband came into the room yelling at the 7 year old and moving toward him. Leslie said she was not sure what he was going to do and got on top of her son. Leslie said her husband grabbed her by the hair with both hands and pulled her up and shook her around. Leslie said she began yelling at her husband and he went downstairs. A minute or two later she heard the door slam. Leslie checked to make sure he was gone and then called 911. She said if she had tried to call 911 with her husband in the house, he would have grabbed the phone from her and threw her around.
	Leslie said, about 10 minutes later, she heard glass break. The window where the air conditioner is was broke out and the glass almost hit her son. Shortly after her husband returned home. She was on the phone with 911. Her husband grabbed a t-shirt and left.
	Leslie was given the case number and told to go downtown and get a protective order. She was told to call back if he returns.
