Reported: 06/17/2015. We were dispatched to 1131 Lodge Ave on an intimidation report. When we arrived we spoke with victim Keeli Adcock. Adcock advised that her ex-boyfriend (suspect) had called and threatened her on today`s date. Adcock said that she filed for a protective order on 06-15-15. She advised that he has been harassing her for several months now, but the threats have gotten worse since she applied for the protective order. Adcock said that he has called her at least 10 times a day the past few days. Adcock said that she has recently put an app on her cell phone that records all phone calls. On today`s date he called twice once, at 12:40 hours where he said "take it off Facebook or I'll cut you from ear to ear". He then called back at 12:42 hours and said "I'll turn your pit bull face unrecognizable". She advised that he is upset because she posted his picture on Facebook advising all of her friends on there of his warrants and that if he is seen to call the police. Adcock said that suspect is also threatening another female reference case number 15-12937.

LW 1512948 Theft-shoplifting	Walmart VICTIM of Theft-shoplifting (C), at 335 S Red Bank Rd, Evansville, IN, between 00:50, 06/17/2015 and 01:23, 06/17/2015. Reported: 06/17/2015. I, Officer S. Brown, was dispatched to Wal-Mart west in reference to shoplift which occurred early in the morning on the previous day. Loss prevention employee, Jack Jeffries, was informed by APM of the theft. Jeffries said the subjects cut a hole in the lawn and garden fence and took merchandise through the opening. Jeffries began his investigation upon learning this information. Jeffries learned at approximately 0050 hundred hours, two unknown individuals (one female and one male) were dropped off at the grocery entrance by a white Dodge Straits. The two individuals enter the store and get a grocery cart before moving across the front end of the store toward the general merchandise side. Both subjects enter into the cosmetics department, but in separate aisles. The male enters the fragrance aisle where he selects multiple fragrances while the female select several small cosmetics. The two then meet and proceed to the housewares and select a trash can which they place in their cart. They then go to the electronics area where they place a large desktop computer, security camera system and router into the cart before moving on to the sporting goods area. Here, they place an air rifle in their cart and proceed through automotive and toward lawn and garden. The female continues out the lawn and garden exit while the male enters another area. The two reconvene on the lawn and garden patio before pushing the cart toward the closed exit. The couple re-enter the building with all of the described merchandise missing from the shopping cart. At this point, it only contains a chair pillow. They then proceed to hardware and select a cutting tool. The male take the cutting tool to a register and pays for the cutting tool. The female went to a separate register and purchased small snacks. They exit through the grocery side and are picked up by the same vehicle. The vehicle proceeds around the rear of the building, circling back to the lawn and garden area. At this point, the individuals make multiple trips back and forth to where the fence had been cut and the merchandise left by the couple.		BROWN, S. E.
