Reported: 06/24/2015. B. Hughes stated that she and her brother C. Hughes live at 900 Varner St. They both stated that the OF has been staying with them a few weeks or months. B. Hughes stated that she and the OF got into an argument over his drug problem and told him to leave. When he refused to do so, she called 911. Prior to my arrival, the OF left and B. Hughes checked her closet and found that two of her guns had been taken. There is only one key to the closet and the OF knows where she has it. There was no forced entry to the closet so it is believed the OF used the key to gain entry. C. Hughes then went to check to see if his guns were still there and found that they were taken as well. B. Hughes stated that the OF has taken her guns before and pawned them for drugs but had gotten them back. While writing this report, B. Hughes called back stating the OF came back. I spoke with the OF and initially he was going to allow me to check his vehicle to make sure the guns weren't in there. When I got to the vehicle though, he refused to allow me to search but stated he would take everything out. I informed him that due to the nature of the items stolen that I would need to check, not him. He refused and drove off. He came back shortly after and claimed that when he stole the guns last time, he got them out of the pawn shop and registered them in his name. B. Hughes and her mother asked that the OF be barred since he gathered all of his belongings and agreed to leave. The OF was notified and stated he understood he was not to come back.	SEDORIS, S.
