Reported: 06/25/2015. The listed Dodge Ram van is parked behind the Victim-business, "El Charro Mexican Restaurant," 720 N SONNTAG AVE. It does not have a registration plate, the windows are all covered with cardboard and tape and the business uses it for storage. Last night, someone broke the middle, driver`s side window of the van. It does not appear that entry into the van was made and there is nothing missing from inside. The Reporter, Mr Lopez, is the manager of El Charro. He called 911 when the damage was discovered this morning. A surveillance video camera is mounted outside the rear of the business, but is pointed at the rear door of the restaurant and is on the passenger side of the van. There are no known Witnesses and Mr Lopez does not have any Suspects. (The VIN on the van was ran through NCIC for registration in Indiana, Kentucky and Illinois. It does not return from any of the three states.) Mr Lopez was provided with this case number.
LW 1513609	Gaudi, Elyse Victoria (W F, 25) VICTIM of Residential Entry (C), at 3100 Hillcrest Ter, Evansville, IN, between 07:30, 06/24/2015 and 19:30, 06/24/2015. Reported: 06/25/2015.		KELLER, E. K.
Residential Entry	Victim, Ms Gaudi, returned home yesterday evening to find that someone had changed the locks on her doors. A neighbor ("Kim" from 3032 HILLCREST) advised that several men had been at her home; the drove-up in a van and used tools to remove her doorknobs. Kim advised that the men stayed in Ms Gaudi`s home for approx. 30 minutes. When they left, the men put a sticker on Ms Gaudi`s front door. (The sticker is still present at the time of this report. The sticker reads, "Five Brothers Default Management Solutions, 586-772-7611." and advises that the property was found to be unsecured and for the owner to report any vandalism or missing items.) Ms Gaudi managed to crawl through one of her windows to find that most if not all of her possessions had been disturbed, moved around or thrown onto the floor. Ms Gaudi advises that she is currently behind on her mortgage payments and called her mortgage company, US Bank. The representative that she spoke with confirmed that the bank does use "Five Brothers" to check on delinquent properties. However, "Five Brothers" was only supposed to do a "drive-by" inspection and was not authorized to make entry or to change Ms Gaudi`s locks. The representative advised Ms Gaudi that she would be sending this situation to her supervisor. Nothing from inside Ms Gaudi`s home appears to be missing at this time. There was no answer at "Kim`s" door, 3032 HILLCREST, and Ms Gaudi did not know Kim`s last name or the phone number for Kim.

Reported: 06/25/2015. I was dispatched to 1118 Park St. around 0930 hours on 062515 in reference to a stolen vehicle. I arrived and met with the victim, Bobby Jolley. Jolley said around 0730 hours on 062515 the suspect walked to his house and asked about the listed vehicle Jolley had for sale on his property. Jolley said the suspect asked if he could take the car for a test drive around the block. Jolley said the suspect took off in the car and returned a short time later, and asked if he could take the car to a friend's house near the Walmart on the westside to have him look at it. Jolley agreed, and said the suspect had not returned the car at the time I was initially sent to the 1118 Park St. address. I told Jolley I would put out a BOL in reference to an unauthorized control of the car. I submitted the BOL details to dispatch around 0952 hours and they dispatched it out. I received a message from dispatch at 1054 hours on 062515 to call Jolley in reference to the unauthorized control of the car. I called Jolley and learned the suspect came back to his residence and bought the car at 1115 hours. Jolley said the suspect wrote a check for $3500.00 off a 5/3 checking account. He said after the suspect left he and his wife went to the 5/3 branch at St. Joseph Ave. and Illinois St. They learned from the bank the checking account had been closed in 2005, and the check was not good. I contacted Detective Wies from Financial Crimes and he said to make the charges check fraud and auto theft. I updated the BOL and had dispatch change it to a stolen vehicle.		SMITH, K. E.
