The suspect was found to be operating a vehicle while his license was suspended. [missing name] VICTIM of Found Property (C), at 5725 N First Ave, Evansville, IN, between 19:26, 06/08/2015 and 19:29, 06/08/2015. Reported: 06/08/2015. Officers were dispatched to 4801 Warren for a theft report. The run card advised that a white male wearing a black shirt, dark jeans, and a hat was in the area looking through car windows. The caller advised he saw the subject and exited his home to confront him. The suspect fled the scene on foot. The caller returned home and later discovered that money was stolen from his truck (See case #15-12201). Officers were enroute to the listed location and observed a male fitting the above description riding a bike against traffic at 5725 N First Ave. Officers initiated a traffic stop. As I made contact with the subject later identified as ,David Vollmer, I observed he had numerous items bulging from his pants pocket. I asked Vollmer for consent to search his person and it was granted. I reached into his front right pants watch pocket and retrieved a silver smoking device and a glass container with a green leafy substance inside. From my training and experience I knew the pipe was used to ingest narcotics and the substance to be synthetic marijuana. Officers took possession of the items. Please enter into evidence for destruction 1 silver smoking device with residue COC-Vollmer, Ofc.Hollins, Ofc. Reported: 06/08/2015. Officer B. Hollins and I (Officer J. Brewer), were on patrol in a marked patrol car (1413) at Iglehart Park (6101 N. First Avenue). Officers smelled the odor of marijuana emanating from two vehicles in the parking lot, a silver passenger car and a black sports car. Officers made contact with two subjects in the silver car and two subjects in the black sports car. The offender, Justin Osborne, was a passenger in the silver passenger car. Upon contact he was extremely nervous and was fidgeting while speaking with Officer B. Hollins. All of the parties were identified and it was discovered that Osborne had an active felony warrant and an active misdemeanor warrant. Osborne was removed from the vehicle and placed into double-locked handcuffs. He was placed into the rear seat of our patrol car. The IO #1, Huntter Arguello, was in the driver seat of the silver passenger car. She gave officers verbal consent to search the contents of the vehicle. I located two cigar wrappers in the center console area inside an empty plastic cigarette box wrapper. The cigars contained a green leafy substance that smelled of marijuana. I read Osborne his Miranda Warning. He acknowledged he understood his rights, waived them and continued to speak with me. Osborne stated the two marijuana joints belonged to him and Osborne had no idea they were in the vehicle. 	Dwelling	Reported: 06/08/2015.
LW 1512140	Suspicious Person	DeVine states that he and his wife had tax and bank papers on the dinner table when they went to bed and this morning they are not there. [missing name] VICTIM of Suspicious Person (C), at 1510 W Franklin St, Evansville, IN, between 13:00, 06/07/2015 and 13:45, 06/07/2015. Reported: 06/08/2015. I was dispatched to 1510 W. Franklin St. unit A, Evansville Treatment Center, in reference to a possible theft report. I arrived and met with the reporter/security officer, Jess Pope. Pope said employees discovered used medicine vials scattered on the parking lot at the facility. She said she reviewed video from their security system. She observed a large white male wearing what appeared to be black shorts, a black t-shirt, and wearing glasses arrive at the facility on a smaller bicycle on 060715 at 1300 hours. The subject went to the dumpster located in the east parking lot between the facility and Seventh St. Pope said the dumpster is locked, but was pried open about a month ago, and caused some damage. She said empty medicine vials are discarded in the dumpster. It appears the subject was able to lift the lid of the dumpster enough to remove some of the empty medicine vials. The subject then walks behind the facility around to the west side of the building where there is an entrance door. The subject stood in front of the door for a while continuing to pull on it, but it is locked. It appeared the subject was possibly under the influence of something. He then left the property after the time he spent at the door. The facility is concerned because this was after treatment hours and no one was working at this time. They are worried he might come back and break into the facility.	SMITH, K. E.
LW 1512142	Missing Adult	[missing name] VICTIM of Missing Adult (C), at 1709 S New York Ave, Evansville, IN, between 10:30, 06/05/2015 and 08:48, 06/08/2015. Reported: 06/08/2015. Joyce (MP) and Charles (RP) are spouses. On Friday morning, Charles dropped off Joyce at the Aurora building at 1100 Lincoln to fill out a housing application. She said she would walk home. Charles waited around the block and a few minutes later he saw Joyce get into a gold Ford Ranger and leave. Charles believes the Ranger belongs to James (IO) and believes he and Joyce may be having an affair. Charles didn't hear from Joyce until Sunday, when he called her and she said she'd be home by 4pm that day. Joyce hadn't returned by the time of this report, so Charles called the police. He said that he's been trying to call and text her, but he gets no reply.	FENDEL, W. M.
LW 1512143	Theft Shoplifting < $750	Simpsons Food Mart VICTIM of Theft Shoplifting < $750 (C), at 1365 Covert Ave, Evansville, IN, on 06/08/2015, 10:03. Reported: 06/08/2015. The OF was seen putting listed items in her purse. She later passed the point of payment without paying for the items and was stopped by store owner Brian James (RP), who then called the police. Stolen items were retrieved and returned to the store. OF has no previous record for theft. I issued her a citation (#655057) for shoplifting with a court date of 9/15/15 at 1:30pm. She was then released.	FENDEL, W. M.

	I was dispatched to 600 Mary to Deaconess on a domestic violence report. On scene I spoke to the victim. She stated that she used to be married to the suspect. Beasley said that the suspect had been texting her wanting some of his property back. She said that he would have the items returned to him. Beasley said that she heard a knock at the door and answered it. She said that the suspect was outside of her home. They started yelling at each other. Beasley said that she shut the door and locked it. That is when the suspect began kicking on the door until he was able to kick the door open and enter the house. Beasley said that she told him several times to leave her house. She told him that she did not have his items at the house. Beasley said that he pushed his way into her room. He grabbed her guitar and held it over his head like he was going to break it. She said that she grabbed his shirt and tired to pull him down onto the bed so the guitar would not break. Beasley said that he lost his balance and landed on a small table in the bedroom. He then began fighting with her, striking her 2 to 3 times on the left side of her head with his fist. She said that after continuing to fight, she was able to push him away. The suspect then left the scene. Beasley said that her ear was red and she had a complaint of pain. She said that she got sick from being struck in the head. Beasley said that she left the house with her children. She came to Deaconess ER today to be treated while the children were with her mother. Beasley said that she does not share children with the suspect. She was given the case number and records number.

Battery - Class B Misdemeanor [bm]	I was dispatched to 403 E. Franklin St. in reference to a disturbance at this address. I arrived and met with the neighbor/witness, Ashley Macken. Macken said she was on the porch at her residence at 401 E. Franklin St. when she observed a white female (later identified as the suspect, Kelli Colson) walking up and down the sidewalk in front of 403 E. Franklin St. Macken said the female was not acting right, and she thought something was wrong with her. She said a short time later she heard screaming, and children crying at 403 E. Franklin St. Macken said she ran over to the address and observed Colson on top of another female (later identified as the victim, Miriah Spann). She said Colson was pulling Spann`s hair, and two adult men were trying to remove Colson from Spann. Macken said she yelled at Colson to stop, but she continued to struggle with Spann. Macken said she then told Colson she was going to call the police, and she did at this time.
	I then made contact with the IO, Brandon Mattingly, at 403 E. Franklin St. Mattingly said Colson is his ex-wife, and Spann is his girlfriend. Mattingly said Colson had been in Germany for the last two weeks, and returned home Saturday

LW	(060615). He said Colson is currently homeless, and her father kicked her out of his house at 1205 N. Fifth Ave. Mattingly said he has had their two daughters while Colson was in Germany. He said she came to the address with a suitcase full of clothing wanting to stay at Spann`s house. Mattingly and Spann told Colson she was not staying there, and she needed to leave. Mattingly said at this time Colson broke out both screens in the storm door, and tried to come in the house. He and Spann were able to keep her from getting in, and this is when Colson got into a physical fight with Spann, and eventually led to the floor on the front porch. Mattingly said Colson left on foot prior to us arriving. He was visibly shaken, and said Colson is crazy. He is concerned she will come back and start more trouble. I gave Mattingly the case number and explained how to proceed with charges, and filing a restraining order on Colson.

Reported: 06/08/2015. Police were dispatched to 6625 E. Lloyd (Target) in reference to a shoplifter in custody. On scene, I identified the shoplifter and spoke with the store employee who observed the theft. He said he watched the suspect select three different baby items from the shelves, and then she concealed them under a blanket in the bottom of the stroller she was pushing. She had her 5 month old baby with her while she did this. The employee watched as the suspect walked past all points of sale and exited the store via the North entrance. It was there he stopped her and had her come back to the office with him. The items were recovered from the bottom of the stroller. The suspect was told she is now barred from all Target locations. I issued her a state citation and escorted her off the property.		HELM, J. E.

LW 1512178	Battery-simple Assault Other [am]	Neale, Daniel Ray (W M, 36) VICTIM of Battery-simple Assault Other [am] (C), at 1030 W Franklin St, Evansville, IN, between 15:41, 06/08/2015 and 15:42, 06/08/2015. Reported: 06/08/2015.	CLIFTON, D. L.
	Officers were dispatched to 1030 W Franklin St for a domestic violence call. Upon arriving I spoke with a Ladonna Spellazza. Ms. Spellazza had obvious swelling to her upper lip, nose and right eye area. Ms. Spellazza first stated she was not involved in any altercation and was only waiting on the bus. As I was speaking with Ms. Spellazza the witness came over and explained he had watched the offender punch Ms. Spellazza in the face standing outside the apartment complex just prior to him calling the police. The witness stated he saw the offender punch Ms. Spellazza in the face and then turn and shove the second victim Daniel Neale across the face knocking him backwards. Ms. Spellazza then admitted that the offender did punch her but she was just scared to talk. Ms. Spellazza stated she had been visiting the offender in his apartment over the weekend and they were drinking alcohol today. Ms. Spellazza advised they got into a physical altercation in the apartment and she was attempting to leave so she went out to wait at the bus stop. This is when she met up with the second victim. Mr. Neale said he was taking photos of the injuries to Ms. Spellazza's face with his phone with the offender approached them at the bus stop. Mr. Neale said the offender then punched Ms. Spellazza again in the face, turned grabbed Mr. Neale's cell phone and shoved him in the face with a open palm knocking him backwards. Mr. Neale said the offender then threw Mr. Neales cell phone in a puddle of water near the curb ruining his cell phone. Both victims had a complaint of pain due to this altercation. Officers were unable to locate the offender at the time of this report. Both victims were given a case number and were advised to follow up with the prosecutors office.
