LW 1511817	[missing name] VICTIM of Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 408 N Barker Ave, Evansville, IN, between 19:15, 06/03/2015 and 19:32, 06/03/2015. Reported: 06/03/2015. The reporter called and stated she had just had a verbal dispute with her neighbor in reference to her dog. I spoke with the reporter who stated her neighbor antagonizes her dog and yells at her to keep her dogs on her own property. While on scene, the reporter notified me that her dog (a mastiff) was missing. The reporter stated she believed that her neighbor had come onto her property and taken her dog. She stated she had her dog tethered to the tree with a lead. She stated she had gone inside and was only away for a few minutes when the neighbor knocked on her door and told her that her dog had come onto his property again. The neighbor then left her property and the reporter called 911. I looked at the lead that was tethered to the tree and it appeared to have been broken, not cut. The lead was old and rusty and the reporter admitted the dog was large enough to break the lead. The reporter also stated that she believed the only way the lead could have been broken was if the neighbor had		NALLY, A. P.

	antagonized the dog to the point it broke it. She stated the neighbor has taken one of her dogs before and kept it in his house until he called animal control. I then went to the neighbor`s house to speak with him. I first asked him if he had the neighbor`s dog in his house. He stated that he did indeed have the reporter`s dog in his basement. I asked him why he put the dog in his home and he stated that it was his duty as a citizen to protect the rest of society from the dog. I told the neighbor to go inside and bring the dog to me. He refused to get the dog. He told me he was only going to give the dog to me once the reporter was issued a citation. I informed him that if he did not give me the dog he would be arrested for theft. He began informing me and the other officer on scene that we could not arrest him for theft since he was doing his duty as a citizen. After advising him again that he would be arrested for theft if he did not return the dog, he decided to give the dog to me. The dog was returned to the neighbor. The homeowner continued to argue that it was his duty to protect the citizens of Evansville. He also informed me that he did indeed do the same thing the last time one of the reporter`s dogs got into his yard. He then stated he only took the dogs into his home because he and his son were afraid of the dogs. He was informed that the next time a the reporter`s dog gets into his yard to go inside and call police. He stated he understood and that he will follow up with animal control in reference to this incident. I then spoke to the reporter again and advised her not to tether her dog outside unattended without it being in a fenced in yard. Both subjects were given a case number. This is an ongoing neighbor dispute and both sides were informed to leave each other alone.
