LW 1511831 Resist Law Enforcement [am]	Society VICTIM of Resist Law Enforcement [am] (C), at 315 Se Martin Luther King Jr Blvd, Evansville, IN, between 22:36, 06/03/2015 and 22:37, 06/03/2015. Reported: 06/04/2015. On listed date, time and location, Officers were dispatched in reference to a domestic violence in progress. Dispatch advised the offense was occurring in front of Kennedy Towers, in the parking area. Officers arrived on scene and observed a black male, later identified as Landon Demar Parker, whom saw them arriving in a fully marked Evansville Police Department (EPD) squad car. Parker jumped into the passenger seat and Officers exited the vehicle and ordered the occupants to show their hands. Parker made what appeared to be furtive movements and did not comply with orders. The girlfriend, located in the driver's seat, looked at Officers and it appeared she had been crying. Parker quickly exited the vehicle and faced Officers. He asked a few questions and began to run Southwest. Officers pursued and Parker stopped, faced Officers and initially squared up as if to fight. Parker began to reach for his waistband and ran toward the driver's side of his vehicle. Officers deployed a conductive electrical weapon (CEW), which was ineffective. Parker grabbed what appeared to be a large sum of money, and possibly other items, from his pockets / waistband and threw it into the driver's window, to his girlfriend, as he ran past the vehicle. He continued to run North - Northwest towards the North side of the apartment complex. Parker was apprehended a short time later. It was later learned Parker threw a large sum of money into the vehicle, but no narcotics were located. A female Officer searched the girlfriend and a large sum of money was located in her sensitive areas. It was possible that narcotics were hidden inside of her body, but non were located. She stated they had been arguing and she dropped Parker off at his mother's residence, located at Kennedy Towers. She stated the argument never became physical. Parker was arrested, transported to the Vanderburgh County Confinement Center and charged with resisting law enforcement, a Class A Misdemeanor.		THIRY, K. Reported: 06/04/2015. I was dispatched to 29 S Stockwell Rd in reference to someone finding out a phone they bought was stolen. I talked to the reporter and she stated that she had bought the phone through Facebook. She met with the person and paid 100 dollars for the phone. When she tried to activate it she was told that she could not activate it because the phone was stolen. She received a text message with just a phone number and a couple other random texts. I talked to detective Mayhugh who advised me how to get the IMIE number for the phone but it did not work, likely because it is a TracPhone. She received a phone call from someone who wouldn't give their name. This person said that they share the phone with the person that she bought it from. They then started talking about some girl getting pregnant and stopped making sense so she hung up. She did not have the name of the person she bought the phone from and I gave her the case number in case she got any more information. I bagged the phone and placed it in the evidence lockers at headquarters as found property.	VANCLEAVE, J.

Reported: 06/04/2015. A loss prevention officer with Walmart noticed a W/M walking down an aisle and it appeared he had several items in the waistband of his basketball shorts. He was also carrying several items that the RP thought were electronics. Loss prevention followed the subject and watched as he selected two bottles of perfume. She stated the offender then walked very quickly toward the front west doors of the store. She watched as the offender walked past all points of sale with the stolen perfume still in his possession and she attempted to stop the offender prior to him walking out of the front door. The offender refused to stop and ran out the side door at the front of the store and around the west side of the building. The loss prevention officer followed him as he ran south from the store and up a dirt hill behind the store. She then lost sight of him. A few minutes later, the RP stated she watched a lime green car drive around the back side of the building. She thought this was very odd since very few people have any reason to drive around the back side of the building. She also stated it appeared the driver was looking around for someone.	NALLY, A.
