LW 1515313 Narc-poss Salvia Or Synthetic Cannabinoid <2 Grams [am]	Society VICTIM of Narc-poss Salvia Or Synthetic Cannabinoid <2 Grams [am] (C), at N Governor St/e Indiana St, Evansville, IN, on 07/16/2015, 00:41. Reported: 07/16/2015. Detectives Watson and Hensley were in the area of Elliott and Franklin when we smelled what we believed to be a meth lab. We began walking down the alley between Franklin and Illinois when we saw two subjects exit a garage behind a vacant residence. The subjects walked quickly west from the area that we were smelling the odor. I asked Officers Saltzman and Dutschke, who were in a marked vehicle, to attempt to talk to the individuals. When Officers pulled up near them one of the subjects, who was later identified as Christopher Anglin, fled on foot. He was apprehended a few blocks away after a foot pursuit. Gray read Miranda to Anglen. Anglen stated to Gray he threw a small amount of synthetic cannabinoids during the foot chase. Watson found a clear plastic cigarette wrapper containing green leafy substance in the area where Anglin stated he threw it at Illinois and Governor St. Anglin had a felony warrant out of Warrick County and was arrested for the outstanding warrant and transported. He was cited for resisting and possession of synthetic. The substance later field tested positive for synthetic cannabinoids and had a field weight of 1 gram.		SALTZMAN, M. D.

	Dallas told me it was skaters that hit him with a skateboard. He told me it was a black male, mixed race male, and a dirty white male. He said they left south on foot.
	I spoke with an employee of Circle K. Jazmyn Anderson said the victim and black male were in the store arguing and began shoving each other. She said the black male left the store and the victim followed him out. She said then customers came in and said the victim, Dallas, was unconscious. The black male got into a car at pump 8 and left. No direction of travel. She said he was around 15 years old, six foot tall, and had short hair. She thought he had a white t-shirt on that had black designs on it. The store was given the case number in case there is video.
	I went to Deaconess and gave Dallas the case number.

When she checked the video, she discovered that earlier on 07/15/2015 around 2230 hours, a silver Ford Focus pulled up in front of the apartment building. The suspect, a white female, got out of the passenger side of the vehicle. She entered the apartment building. A short time later she exited the apartment building with her hood over her head and carrying the box. She threw it in the passenger side of the vehicle, got back in the car and left. Cook said she does not know the suspect or has seen her at the apartment building before. Upon our arrival, we noticed a key was left in the front door of the main entry way. We asked Cook about the key and she said the front door is normally locked and residents only have a key. However, the landlord used her key to the door and her key got stuck in the lock. Therefore, anyone can walk up to the door, turn the key, and gain access to the apartment building.		BROWN, D. R.

	Officers were called to 919 Oakley St in reference to a missing juvenile. I arrived and spoke to the mother, M. Tucker. She stated that her son, OF, has some defiance issues and had gotten into an argument with her husband. She stated he took off to a friends house down the street and her husband let him. This was around 1100 hundred hours. She came home around 1330 hundred hours and went down the street to make him come home. He then took off toward First Ave away from her. She did not pursue him. She stated she tried looking for him but could not say where she checked. She does not have a vehicle or a bicycle to check so she stayed at home until a family member came to pick her up in their vehicle.
	The parents did not seem overly concerned he left. They stated he does this all the time and that he has several issues. While officers were out checking for the juvenile, the parents did not have any idea where he could be or where he could go. They were not out looking and did not give any guidance to officers to assist in finding the child. Juv Det. King was contacted as well as Rick Johnson. Per both, if the child is located, he is to be taken to Hillcrest under the safe haven law and CPS will follow up.
	The child was last seen wearing only gym shorts. He is a white male, slender, has blue eyes and jet black hair. He is not wearing any shoes or shirt. He was last seen going north on First Ave from Oregon.
