	On 07/22/15 at approximately 1415 hours, I was dispatched to 956 E Blackford in reference to a fraud report. When I arrived on scene, I made contact with the victim, J, Tyler. He stated he made a business deal with the offender in January of 2015. Tyler would give the offender $3000 (three thousand) to fund a construction job. In return, the offender would give Tyler $4000 (four thousand) in May of 2015. The extra $1000 (one thousand) was to be considered the cost for loaned amount of money.
	Tyler contacted the offender several times in May. The offender eventually wrote a $4000 check to Tyler on 06/12/15. He also asked him not to cash it for one week. When the one week time frame had passed, Tyler attempted to cash the check but it was denied. The bank stated the account does not hold sufficient funds to cover the check amount.
	Since the bank had denied the check, Tyler attempted to contact the offender several times without success.

Harassment [bm]	C. Schuler is having issues with family members regarding a civil matter over money owed and a bicycle being used a collateral. Schuler was given the bicycle and told he would get the money soon. Schuler agreed to the conditions.
	Yesterday, one of his other brothers showed up at his house in a black Suburban threatening him and trying to get the bicycle for the brother that gave it to Schuler. Schuler refused to give it back being that it was a payment. His brother was sent on his way. Schuler thought it may be in his best interest to avoid any further confrontation and called his brother back while officers were on scene for him to get the bicycle. His brother cursed him out on the phone and hung up. He tried a few more times to try and just give him the bicycle back but was cursed out each time.
	Overnight, a Facebook page was created with the name of "Natalya Munoz". "Munoz" began messaging Schuler`s wife stating that he needed to stop trying to contact "Tommy" and "Jessica" and that if he doesn`t stop that they will make sure he ends up in jail. Then threatened to make sure his kids were taken away. The messages started around 0300 hundred hours and were constant and continuous up until I met with Schuler to take the report.
	He also advised that his brother keeps driving by in the black Suburban all day so far.
	He cannot say for sure that the fake profile is his brother but thinks it is very likely, as he has never heard of this "Munoz" person and the profile was just made at 0300 hundred hours.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1515902 Traffic-accident Hit&run /prop [bm]	R. Yeaden and M. Yeaden are father and son and live together at 721 Bryan Rd. Today, they got into a verbal altercation that started over R. Yeaden and his wife arguing. M. Yeaden confronted him. R. Yeaden then shoved him. M. Yeaden then shoved him back and it knocked R. Yeaden to the ground. They both began physically fighting. During the course of the fight, R. Yeaden hurt his ankle [unsure what exactly he did]. He believes that its a direct result of M. Yeaden "jumping him". M. Yeaden stated it was from R. Yeaden falling to the ground and fighting M. Yeaden. M. Yeaden stated that R. Yeaden then began smashing glass and tearing up the house. He even used a wooden stick to assist in smashing things up. The stick was sitting beside R. Yeaden outside by the swing when I arrived. M. Yeaden had several small cuts on his cheek as a result from the fight. R. Yeaden had cuts on his right knuckles, a knot on his head, rug burn on his right elbow that was bloody and his right ankle was hurting. Both M. Yeaden and R. Yeaden didn` t want to press charges, R. Yeaden just asked that M. Yeaden leave for the night. M. Yeaden agreed to leave. After walking around the yard and house for the duration of the run, R. Yeaden stated he did wish to have a report filed in the event there was something more "seriously wrong with his ankle" so he could pursue charges. R. Yeaden then left with a case number and went to the hospital. It should be noted that R. Yeaden was intoxicated and appeared to be the aggressor. He continuously started confrontation with M. Yeaden and yelled/argued with his wife while I was on scene. M. Yeaden was upset with what had occurred, but was able to discuss what had happened in a calm fashion. I had asked R. Yeaden`s wife what had happened and she stated she did not see anything that had occurred.		DEYOUNG, P. A.
