LW 1514170	arrived this morning to open the pre-school. She noted some cigarette ash on the floor and, when she looked up, she noted that the drop-boxes for the church`s collection and tuitions for the pre-school had been ripped from the wall by the office door and were missing. She immediately called Police and her boss, listed Victim 2, Ms Springer. Victim 2, Ms Springer, is the office manager for the Victim-business. Her office had been gone through and three (3) Coke Cola bottles were taken from inside her office. Ms Springer advised that she and her husband were the last ones in the business, yesterday, leaving at approx. 18:20 hours. In addition to the original pile of cigarette ash, there was also another near the side door that faces the West, out in the direction of HARMONY WAY. This is the apparent point of entry. There was also what appeared to be white, drywall dust on a rug near the opposite door that faces the East, going out onto the business` parking lot. It appears that the subject(s) came in through the West door, went directly to the two drop-boxes and ripped them from the wall. They then went through Ms Springer`s office to see what else they could grab. They then left, through the East door. Officer Walker from CSTU was called to the scene for processing.		PRITCHETT, K. D.

Baker said the IO, Randy Clark, was standing outside of his apartment without a shirt on, and said "the guy must have thought we were talking about him". Baker said Clark told him just to keep walking. Baker said then, for some reason, the maintenance man for the apartment complex/suspect, Walter Rice, who was cleaning up the parking lot, punched him on the right side of his head for no reason. Baker said he continued walking to his father`s house at 1212 N. First Ave. to file a battery report. Baker said the right side of his face hurt, and he could not hear out of his right ear. Gibson said he witnessed the entire incident. I then followed up at Jacobsville Apartments to see if I could locate other involved parties. I located Clark, who was still standing outside of his apartment at 220 W. Florida St. At this time he had a shirt on. I asked Clark what took place during the incident. Clark said he was standing, shirtless, outside of his apartment and observed two young men, Baker and Gibson, walking through the complex. Clark said Baker was looking at him and calling him "titty-man", and laughing. Clark said Baker said it several times. Clark said he told Baker to keep walking and leave him alone. He said Baker continued yelling and laughing. At this time Clark said Baker were walking by Mr. Rice, and Rice told him to get off the property, and quit causing a disturbance. Clark said he observed Baker approach Mr. Rice and attempt to punch him. Clark said Mr. Rice moved and then defended himself and punched Baker. Clark said Baker left at this time. I then spoke to witnesses, Mary Gills and Sabrina Rice. Gills and Mrs. Rice confirmed Clark`s account and said Baker was making fun of Clark, and then attempted to punch Mr. Rice.	Bevinger, Jamie Lauren (W F, 24) VICTIM of Auto Theft-other Vehicles (C), at 703 E Columbia St, Evansville, IN, between 21:00, 07/01/2015 and 08:00, 07/02/2015.
