Reported: 08/13/2015. Officers were dispatched to 1700 W Franklin St in reference to a Hit and Run. Officers arrived at Miller Brick Company and spoke with the reporter, Jacob Burchett. He advised that his fathers black and gold Ford F-350 pickup had been hit on the drivers side rear door around 1530 hours. He had parked his truck along the building near the northwest side. A company owned Ford F-450 flatbed was parked across from him perpendicular to his truck. The owner of the company had left in the flat bed around 1530 hours. The vehicle was undamaged before he left and damaged after. There are distinct scuffs/scratches in the paint of the victims vehicle that match up to the suspect vehicle. The owner of the company came back from his delivery and another employee talked to him about the accident. He denied it ever happened and did not talk to the reporter. After we arrived and spoke with the reporter he tried calling the owner personally to talk to him to see if they could work it out. When he spoke with the owner he stated that there was nothing to work out between them. The reporter advised he had pictures of the damage and of the suspect vehicles rear corner. He told the owner that he would be filing a Hit & Run report if they could not work it out. The victim was adamant about wanting to pursue charges. Officers looked at all marks and the heights of the bumper and damage appeared to be the same. The markings were also distinct to the area around the rear corner and lights of the suspect vehicle. There was no visible damage to the suspect vehicle due to the heavy gauge of metal used on the flatbed. Officers were advised by Sgt. McQuay to not tow the suspect vehicle since there was no damage to it and to just describe the markings as best we could. He also advised to have the reporter save the photographs of both vehicles and the damage for the Hit & Run Unit.		GREEN, R. E.

Richardson said he pushed Johnsons hands off and she scratched him when her hands were around his neck. I was able to observe scratch marks on Richardson`s neck area. Crime scene was called for pictures. Richardson stated that Johnson left the area and was going to a house on Kentucky/Walnut. Richardson said that he has had to make several calls to the police for similiar situations and that he is concerned for their children because Johnson is an alcoholic. Richardson refuse AMR treatment. Officer Proctor said he spoke with Johnson who stated that she and Richardson did not have a physical altercation. Officer. Proctor observed a scratch on Johnsons neck and she stated that she got the scratch from a necklace that she was wearing. Johnson was told that Richardson was going to press charges and Johnson stated that since he was pressing charges, she wanted to. Johnson then stated that she was protecting herself from Richardson because he was going to attack her. Johnson said that Richardson pushed her off the porch and pulled two of her dreadlocks out. Johnson refused AMR treatment. Both parties were given a case number. Morgan, Jeffrey Lowell (W M, 54) VICTIM of Battery - Class A Misdemeanor [am] (C), at 911 Line St, Evansville, IN, between 00:20, 08/13/2015 and 00:38, 08/14/2015. Reported: 08/14/2015. Officers were dispatched to 911 Line in reference to a Battery report. On scene I spoke to J. Morgan, (listed as Victim # 1 and Suspect # 2). Morgan stated he was walking his dog on the sidewalk next to 900 Line when he noticed J. Grimm (listed as Suspect # 1 and Victim # 2) sitting in his girlfriend`s car, later identified as L. Gravil (listed as Witness # 1). Morgan admitted to knocking on the window of the car and wanting Grimm to tell Gravil the "truth" about all the lies he (Grimm) had been telling her. Morgan explained that he and Grimm have been having a sexual relationship while he has been dating Gravil. Morgan stated this angered Grimm and Grimm got out of the car and threw him into a fence along the sidewalk and then down to the ground where Grimm hit him in the head. Morgan stated he walked back to his house where he called 9-1-1. Morgan was noted for a scratch to his left shoulder blade, but refused AMR. I then spoke to Grimm. Grimm stated he and Gravil were sitting in Gravil`s car on the side of his (Grimm`s) residence at 900 Line Street. Grimm stated that as they were talking, Morgan appeared at the window and began hitting it and calling him a liar and yelling about telling the truth. Grimm stated he got out of the car at which point Morgan grabbed Grimm by the back of the neck and began to hit him in the face. Grimm admitted that he pushed Morgan into the fence and then threw him on the ground. I then spoke to Gravil who stated she and Grimm were sitting in the car when a guy (Morgan) walked up and began hitting her passenger side window. Gravil stated Grimm got out of the car and he and Morgan began arguing and yelling in the street. Gravil stated she got scared and left the scene and did not return until I arrived. Gravil added that Morgan and Grimm have lived together in the past, but she did not have any knowledge of a romantic relationship between them. Both Morgan and Grimm were given the case # and told the process for filing charges with the Prosecutor`s Office and obtaining a protective order.		CONDIFF, M. V.
