Ella stated she was getting ready to leave to go to the store when she opened up the door and saw a white male standing just outside. Ella stated this scared her and she began yelling for her son. She said the male, who I spoke with and who identified himself as Kayle, began telling her about some items laying outside. Ella, who was still scared, was also yelling at Kayle to leave her property and he did. As Ella and her son came out they noticed her vehicle had been gotten in to and a purse of hers was found outside. The contents of the purse were dumped out on the sidewalk but Ella does not believe anything was missing. Ella did look in her vehicle and found that some of her medications were missing along with some collectible bears, and a Samsung flip phone. Ella stated the car was locked when she got out. It does appear that there are some pry marks above the drivers side door where someone may have been able to get in. Crime scene was contacted to see if they could collect any evidence from the vehicle. I did speak with Kayle who stated he was walking from his friends house at 212 W. Maryland when he noticed the purse and contents laying on the sidewalk. He said he walked up to the door to knock and it was at that time Ella opened the door. Kayle advised he was trying to explain why he was there but that they just kept yelling for him to leave the property. Kayle said he began to walk home but then went back to his friends to wait for the police.		ELFREICH, C. A.

Theft All Other < $750	The victim stated he noticed a subject walking down the street that he recognized as an acquaintance of his that he has known for many years (he knew the offender`s name). The victim stated the white male offender walked up to him and began talking to him in the driveway. During the course of the conversation, the offender pulled out a $20 bill and asked the victim if he had change for it. The victim pulled out what he described as a wad of cash and gave the offender 4-$5 bills in change for the $20. The victim stated the offender then asked him for the $20 bill back and gave the victim the 4-$5`s back. The victim stated the offender then grabbed the entire wad of money and pushed him. The victim later changed his story and stated he was never actually touched. The victim stated he was also not threatened. The victim stated he then chased the offender down Missouri St. and stopped chasing him as the offender ran toward Maryland St. The victim stated the offender was wearing red shorts and had no shirt or shoes on. I asked the victim if he wished to pursue charges. The victim initially stated he would, but then once again changed his mind and stated he didn`t want to pursue charges as long as he got his money back. While I was speaking with the victim, other officers in the area stopped a subject matching the description of the offender running EB on Maryland St. The offender was in the process of changing his shorts. He was removing red shorts and putting black shorts on. The subjects name matched the name given by the victim. I asked the victim if he would go with me to positively identify the offender. The victim stated that he would and I transported the victim to Maryland/Fifth St. I stopped the patrol car and the offender was stood up so the victim could get a good look at him. The victim stated several times, "I don`t know if that`s him." The victim could not positively identify the subject the officers had stopped. I then began transporting the subject back to his residence. The victim saw a pair of red shorts laying on the ground near the subject that had been stopped by officers. The victim stated, "Did that guy have red shorts on?" He stated, "If he had red shorts on that was him." I asked the victim how he could identify the subject (that he has known for years) solely based on the color of his shorts and not by the rest of the subject. The victim later stated he could not see the subject standing on the side of the road because he has bad eyes. I asked him why he didn`t tell me on scene, to which he did not have a legitimate answer. I asked the victim how he could see a pair of shorts laying on the ground if he could not see the victim standing on the side of the roadway. Again, the victim did not have an answer. I gave the victim a case number and informed him how to follow up with charges with the prosecutor`s office.	HOLLINS, B. E.

Reported: 08/17/2015. Officers were dispatched to 1505 N Third Ave Apt 12 in reference to a domestic dispute. Upon arrival I spoke with Chelsea Hemmings and she stated she has been living at the above listed address since November 2014 with her boyfriend. They do not share any children together though. Chelsea stated the dispute was over her going to the grocery store to get food. Chelsea stated while at the store she didn't text her boyfriend and he thought she was cheating on him. When Chelsea returned home from the grocery store they began arguing. The boyfriend left the residence but returned a short time later and began cooking himself some food. Chelsea told him that was rude to just cook food for himself and should cook for everyone. Chelsea stated her boyfriend then became irate and head butted her causing her to hit her eye on the kitchen counter top. This occurred in the presence of a juvenile child that was standing in the living room that was able to see and hear everything. Chelsea stated her boyfriend then poked her in the eye with his finger and then began choking her, but she was able to breath. Chelsea stated she was able to push him off her off and he fled the scene before officers arrived. I observed Chelsea's left eye was bruised and she also had several scratches on both sides of her neck. I contacted crime scene to come take photos of her injuries. Chelsea was also given a case number and advised to pursue charges with the prosecutor's office.		PORTER, J. B.
LW 1518148	Sanford, Brandy Nichole (W F, 30) VICTIM of Battery-simple Assault Other [am] (C), at 801 S Barker Ave, Evansville, IN, between 19:20, 08/17/2015 and 19:36, 08/17/2015. Reported: 08/17/2015. I, Officer S. Brown, was dispatched to 801 S. Barker in reference to a disorderly conduct. I arrived and met with the victim, Sanford. Sanford said she was walking near the football fields when a young teenage girl said something to her about giving her a "mean mug." Brandy said she told the girl she wasn't giving her a dirty look, but that she was upset with her son. Brandy advised the girl then continued to cuss her and call her a rude bitch before throwing a bottle of liquid at her. She said the bottle hit her in the chin and chest and the drink poured all over her. Brandy said she instinctively reacted and pushed the girl backward before the teenager grabbed her hair and began hitting her. Brandy said she frightened back in self defense. Brandy had a small cut to the inside of her eye and complained to soreness. Brandy had relatives nearby, Martin and Wade, who came up and began trying to pull the two apart. Martin advised she grabbed onto Brandy. Wade said she was trying to grab the teenager, when a black male teen came up and grabbed her by the arms and pushed her to the ground. Wade said she got up and tried again, but again the black male grabbed her pushed her down. Wade had bruising to her inner arms. They also told me that a tall skinny white male acted like he was grabbing something from his waistband, but they didn't know if he had a weapon or not.		BROWN, S. E.

LW 1518154 Found Property	I was able to locate the female juvenile at 2112 Emerson. She was visiting with her grandmother at this location. The other involved juveniles were also present at this location. The juvenile offender admitted to throwing her drink at Brandy; however, she said she threw it because the woman called her friend a "nigger." I then spoke with her eighteen year old friend, Cook. Cook told me the offender did throw the drink at Brandy, but said he was not called a "nigger." Cook advised the two females were already fighting when two other women ran up. Cook said he intervened not knowing if these women were also going to jump the juvenile. He said he was called a racial slur when he grabbed onto one of the women; however, it was not by the victim. Boone, Anthony Alexander (B M, 27) VICTIM of Found Property (C), at 1299 Parrett St/monroe Ave, Evansville, IN, between 22:24, 08/17/2015 and 22:26, 08/17/2015. Reported: 08/17/2015. Officers were dispatched to the are of Monroe and Parrett in reference to a suspicious circumstance. The caller stated three male juveniles were seen running away from what appeared to be a wrecked moped. Officers arrived on scene and located the moped. The moped was ran for stolen and it returned not stolen. Officers attempted to make contact with the registered owner, but were unable to make contact with him. Officers checked the area, but were unable to locate any of the involved juveniles. The moped was towed to Tri-State Towing as found property.		MATTINGLY, T.

LW 1518157	Hill, Lakaiya Natalie Monique (B F, 24) VICTIM of Battery - Domestic - Presence Of Child <16 (C), at 3205 Vann Park Blvd, Evansville, IN, on 08/18/2015, 00:35. Reported: 08/18/2015.		KEMMERER, D. A.
Battery - Domestic - Presence Of Child <16	Victim and suspect live together and have the child in common. Tonight she came home early she caught him outside "sloppy drunk". He had left their child locked inside the apartment. The male was talking to another girl and the female got upset. They argued inside and the male tried to push the female down the steps while the child was present. He told her that she was going to end up in the icu before the police arrived.
	The female says that the male carries a sword with him where ever he goes. She said the other female had it and was trying to give it to the male but the victim grabbed it from the other female. The victim says she wants to press charges and would like to get a restraining order against the male. He ran into another building and was not present while officers were on scene. The female may leave for the night because she fears the male may return.
	The victim refused AMR and said that she is not injured.
