He had a bleeding cut on his forehead. Ginger said she and the suspect have been married for a few years, but are in the process of divorce. Their hearing is in September. Tonight they decided to go to a H.S. football game together. Afterward they went to Highland Inn, then to Pistons to have drinks with friends. Ginger said the suspect ignored her at these places until other men took notice of her. She said he left both places in anger. Before going home they went through the drive-thru at Hardees at St Joe and Illinois. They got their food, but before pulling off they got into a fight. Ginger said the suspect grabbed her by the head and pulled on it, which cause her injured neck. Then he pulled on her arm and she heard a pop. The suspect said Ginger attacked him and hit him in the forehead, which caused his cut. They drove home from there and argued more when they got home. Neither party wanted to press charges at the scene. Ginger refused AMR but asked if I would take her to a Hotel. After Ginger got in my car she asked to go to the hospital to have her arm checked. I transported her to Deaconess ER and she mentioned she would like a report. An x-ray showed her arm was not broke, likely only sprained. CT scan results of her neck were still pending at the time of this report. Ginger was given a case number and told how to follow up. |   | SEIBERT, C. S. |
