	On 08-14-15 at 13:40 hours I was dispatched to 15 NW Martin Luther King Blvd EPD headquarters, on a battery report. When I arrived I spoke with victim #1 S. Hicks who advised that she was at suspects house when the battery occurred. She advised that suspect is her ex girlfriend. She said that suspect invited her over to try and talk things out since they had been separated. Hicks said that they started talking and the talking turned into an argument. She advised that suspect grabbed a baseball bat and got in front of the door so she couldn`t leave. She said that suspect then swung at her several times with the bat striking victim in the left arm. Hicks had a large bruise on her left tricep. She said that she was then able to get the baseball bat away from suspect. She said suspect while she was taking the baseball bat away from her, bit her on the back on the neck. Hicks still had bite marks from where suspect had bitten her. Hicks said that she was then able to get out of the house and in the vehicle that she was driving. She advised that the vehicle belongs to her mother victim #2. Hicks said that when she got into the vehicle the drivers side window was down. She said she started the vehicle and started to back out of the drievway, when suspect came out of the house. Hicks said that as she was backing up suspect threw a brick at the front windshield of the car breaking the winshield. She said that she stopped the car and asked suspect "what are you doing"? She said suspect then grabbed another brick and threw it at her face through the drivers side window, striking her in the left eye. Hicks face was red, swollen, and she had stitches that she received from the hospital. Hicks advised that she was treated at St Marys hospital for her injuries. Hicks was given the case number to the report. *Crime scene photographed all of Hicks injuries, the damage to the car, and placed the brick and baseball bat into evidence.
