The victim, Sara Basham, stated that the suspect came to her house to pick up a dog that the victim had been watching for the suspect and her husband. The suspects husband is the victims cousin. The suspect was unaware that her husband had told the victim to get rid of the dog until she went to pick it up today. When she found out she became angry and started yelling at the victim in front of the victims many kids. Before leaving she told the victim that, she would "get hers", and that she would "beat her ass." The victim stated she felt threatened and that she was worried about her and her kids safety. She stated she wanted to pursue charges and that she would be seeking a protective order tomorrow.

The victim states her son's bicycle was stolen out of the fenced in backyard at 624 Washington. The theft occurred sometime in the prior 48 hours.

The bike is described as a black, boys Next brand bicycle with blue and white lettering. The model is called "Wipe" and the model is displayed in large, white letters. The bicycle has one front hand brake, spoke wheels and blue colored rubber on the inside of the tire. The size of the bicycle is either 18" or 20". The bicycle is new and was recently purchased for $80 at Walmart. The victim does not have a serial number at this time.

The victim's son suspects that a juvenile stole it and that the juvenile lives one block to the east at 515 Washington Ave. Officers went to the address but nobody answered the door or appeared to be home. Officers checked the back of and sides of the property and could not locate the bicycle. The victim's son states he was being teased by the juvenile. The victim's son said he did not see the suspected juvenile Offender with the bicycle but suspects strongly that he stole the bicycle. Remarks while being teased that the bicycle had been spray painted and destroyed upset the victim's son.
