LW 1520101 Battery-simple Assault Other [am]	Another employee observed a white male with food items in his hand. The employee observed the Offender place the food items in his pocket, passing all points of sales, and exited the business. The employee stopped the Offender and asked him to pay for or return the food items. The Offender returned one of the items on his person and left the business with several other items still in his possession. The Offender then fled the scene. Several Officers patrolled the surrounding area and observed a white male matching the description given to Central Dispatch. Officers made contact with the subject who was later identified as Paul Hartline. Hartline was in possession of several food items. Hartline was cited for the theft.		HARRINGTON, M.
LW 1520103 Battery-hff Domestic [am]	Gold, Devona Lynn (B F, 45) VICTIM of Battery-simple Assault Other [am] (C), at 198 Nw Martin Luther King Jr Blvd/vine St, Evansville, IN, between 23:40, 09/09/2015 and 23:48, 09/09/2015. Reported: 09/10/2015. On today`s date, around 2348 hours, Ofc. M. Reid was flagged down by the Devona Gold reference a battery. I arrived on scene as Ofc. Reid was speaking to Gold. The male subject I identified as Gregory Armstead. I asked Armstead what happened and he said they were just arguing. Armstead said Gold stays with him off and on, but does not live with him. Ofc. Reid informed me that Gold told him Armstead hit her in the face while they were walking to his place from Kennedy Towers. Gold said she did not want to press charges and just wanted to go her own way and did not want Armstead going with her. She said they do not live together and that he lives around the corner on Court St. and she lives with her mother at Kennedy Towers. Gold said her face felt swollen. I observed Gold had a small red mark on her right cheek and minor swelling under her eye. Because Gold did not want to pursue any charges they were both sent on their separate ways. Before leaving the scene at MLK and Vine, Gold started walking back toward Ofc. Reid and myself and stated that Armstead had her cell phone and she wanted it back. Gold then said that she was with Armstead in her grandmother cars at Kennedy Tower listening to music. Gold said Armstead took her phone and that`s when he hit her in the face. She asked for her phone back from Armstead but he refused to give it to her. They then left Kennedy Towers together and she said she was just going to walk with him halfway to his apartment. We went to 709-B Court St. to make contact with Armstead again since we had already released him to ask about the cell phone. Armstead denied having or taking the cell phone from Gold. Since Gold could not get her cell phone back she decided she wanted to pursue charges for both battery and for him taking her cell phone.		KARGES, M. T.

		Officers were dispatched to 2311 W Virginia (Lic`s) for narcotics use. The run card advised that a male and female were on the listed parking lot in a white Lexus "huffing".
		Upon officers arrival we were greeted by an employee of the listed located. She informed us that the couple have been on the lot for hours and a customer informed her that she observed them huffing. Officers made contact with the vehicle (IN CM plate WPN200). As we made our approach Ofc .Brewer informed me that the passenger later identified as, Chase Nance, had a can in his hand and was actively inhaling the content of it. I observed Nance in action and removed him from the vehicle and placed him into double locked handcuffs. Ofc. Brewer removed the other occupant, Rachel Hopf, and placed her in double locked handcuffs as well.
		I set Nance on a curb and read him his Miranda warning and he stated he understood them and continued to talk to officers. Nance stated he contacted Hopf and she asked him to meet her at the listed location. He got in her car and she gave him a can of cleaning duster. Nance stated both parties inhaled to duster.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1520148	Ofc. Brewer read Hopf her Miranda warning and she agreed to continue to speak to officers. She denied inhaling any duster and stated Nance brought the duster into her car for his usage only. I read Hopf her Pirtle warning and she consented to a search of her vehicle. I discovered 3-10oz cans of cleaning duster inside the vehicle. One of the cans was located by the drivers side door, where Hopf was seated. As I picked it up it was cold to the touch as if it just used. Both of Nance and Hopf had extremely dilated eyes and both were unsteady on their feet. From officers training and experience they appeared to be under the influence of inhaling toxic vapor. Both parties were issued misdemeanor citations (UTT-8220092177 & 8220092176) and released. Officers advised Hopf not to drive the vehicle for a span of at least three hour or officers would charge her with DUI. She stated she understood our orders and left the scene on foot.		REED, L.
