LW 1520933 Criminal Mischief To Veh [bm]	Staples, Alicia Ann (W F, 27) VICTIM of Criminal Mischief To Veh [bm] (C), at 1215 N Garvin St, Evansville, IN, between 01:00, 09/20/2015 and 02:20, 09/20/2015. Reported: 09/20/2015. I was dispatched to 1215 N. Garvin St. in reference to a vehicle being vandalized. When I arrived I spoke with the victim that told me she was woke up by her family members to find her vehicle had been vandalized. The victim told me that her niece had a ex-friend (suspect), that had came over to her house, and due to previous issues with her she was asked to leave. A neighbor that lives at 1217 N. Garvin St. heard a noise outside, and when she looked out she saw the suspect running from the victims car. A male that lives with the victim walked down the street where the suspect was supposed to be hanging out at 810 N. Garvin St. The male subject told the suspect she shouldn't have did that to the car, and the suspect told him she would come back and do the same to his vehicle.		UNDERWOOD, B.
LW 1520934 Theft All Other < $750	Rhea, Lucinda Jean (W F, 53) VICTIM of Theft All Other < $750 (C), at 1099 W Illinois St/n Fourth Ave, Evansville, IN, between 22:30, 09/19/2015 and 02:15, 09/20/2015. Reported: 09/20/2015. The very intoxicated victim Lucinda Rhea, flagged down Benita Rodgers at 4th and Illinois. She said her 10 year old son had been stolen. Rodgers called 911. Officer Fair arrived and spoke to Rhea. After calling Rhea`s sister in Paducah and asking Rhea many questions, Fair confirmed Rhea`s 10 year old son was missing but likely not stolen. She suspected her friend stole the boy and later she told us her purse was gone and she thought he stole it too. She came to Evansville with her friend (suspect) from Paducah, Ky. and her 10 year old son. The suspect drove her car while she drank. They were dropping off another friend (Tony?) at the Evansville Rescue Mission. After 2 hrs of searching occupied and abandoned homes, searching RMS, calling people and checking the Evansville Rescue Mission, we finally found the boy safe asleep in apt 211 of Schnute Towers. As we figured was likely the case, the suspect told us he took he boy to a friends apt. to sleep while his drunk mom was passed out in the car. He said she had been acting violent and belligerent so he left her in the car. We returned the boy to his mother and Rodgers let them stay in her apt for the night. The suspect was totally cooperative with us. His story seemed very legitimate and it seemed he was taking good care of the boy. The boy told us he has not been harmed. The suspect said he intended on waking Rhea in the morning and driving her and the boy back to Paducah. He said her purse was in the car with her when he left her there. His personal items were still in the car, indicating he had every intention of returning. Rhea was insistent that the suspect stole her purse and tried to steal her son. She asked for a report. She was given a case number and told how to follow up.		FAIR, D. A.
LW 1520937 Battery - Class A Misdemeanor [am]	Frazier, Megan Allyn (W F, 23) VICTIM of Battery - Class A Misdemeanor [am] (C), at 311 N Morton Ave, Evansville, IN, between 02:50, 09/20/2015 and 03:08, 09/20/2015. Reported: 09/20/2015. Officers were dispatched to an assault that just occurred at 311 N. Morton. The caller said she had been assaulted by two females. They had left on foot. The caller also asked for AMR. Sgt. Thompson arrived first. Myself and Officer Lowe arrived. The victim, Megan Frazier, was sitting on the steps of 311 N. Morton where she lives. Megan said she had been around the corner on Michigan at a party. They had a fire going and the fire department came by and made them put it out. Megan went home. A little later, a black female she knows as Toya showed up at her house and began yelling at Megan. Toya said Megan threw rocks at James grandmother. Megan told he she did not do anything and did not know what she was talking about. Toya left. A short time later, Toya returned with another black female, black male, and		BROWN, D. R.

LW 1520939 Battery - Class B Misdemeanor [bm]	James (a white male). Words were exchanged. Emily told them to leave. Toya said make me bitch. Then Toya went on to the porch and started hitting Emily in the face. Toya knocked Emily to the ground and kept punching her in the face. Emily`s face was red but did not appear to be bruising at this time. They left on foot back toward Michigan St. when Emily called 911. Emily went to Deaconess in AMR 0347. Toya was a heavy set black female wearing a gray tank and shorts. The other black female was wearing a pink shirt and jeans. She was smaller than Toya. The black male was wearing a black t-shirt and jean shorts. James was wearing a blue t-shirt and had his hair back in a pony tail. They all live on Michigan between Garvin and Morton. Emily was given the case number.		FAIR, D. A.
LW 1520940 Incident Rpt Misc	Phipps, Aubrey Leah (W F, 26) VICTIM of Battery - Class B Misdemeanor [bm] (C), at 1407 Shanklin Ave, Evansville, IN, between 03:30, 09/20/2015 and 03:35, 09/20/2015. Reported: 09/20/2015. V1,Phipps said she was in a relationship with the suspect a couple years ago, but broke up with him because he beat her. They have been broke up for about a year and a half, until a couple weeks ago, when they got back together. Phipps said she is homeless and helpless, so she was just trying to get help from the suspect, even though he is also homeless. Phipps showed a bruise from where the suspect battered her a couple days ago. Tonight she came to 1407 Shanklin to stay with friends there, W1 Smith, W2 L. Baker, and V2 M. Baker. The suspect came with her but she thought her friends could help keep her safe when the suspect tries to beat her. She said she has been scared for her safety and wants to get away from him. Phipps and the others told the following about tonight`s events. Phipps and the suspect were arguing because the suspect wanted to leave the apt. but Phipps wanted to stay. The suspect grabbed Phipps and tried to physically remove her from the apt. Her friends helped her pull away. The suspect picked up a kitchen knife and told them to let him out. M. Baker felt threatened by it. They got out of the suspect`s way and he dragged Phipps out the front door. He was pulling her hair and grabbing her face. Phipps said the suspect tried to grab her throat and pull her larynx out but there were no visible marks. The witnesses said they saw the battery but never saw the suspect strangle the victim. She said she was not injured and needed no medical attention. Phipps said he wanted to press charges. M. Baker said he wanted to press charges also. Both were given a case number and told how to follow up. The suspect was barred from the property and allowed to leave. He said he was trying to get Phipps out of the apartment because the others were to trying to do sexual things to her. He said they threatened him.	(C)	BROWN, D. R.

Reported: 09/20/2015. Officers were dispatched to McDonalds on N Main St reference a Custody Dispute. The caller, LeeWayne Johnson, was supposed to meet the Offender at this location to pick up his daughter. He had a court Order filed on September 14th 2015. It stated the daughter would start out in the mothers custody which she did. It then stated that the first exchange was to occur at this location on today`s date, 09-20-2015, at 1700 hours. Mr. Johnson stated he had talked to the Offender after the designated time since she had not shown up. The Offender stated she would not be bringing him their daughter because it wasn`t his weekend. He then called police. After speaking with Mr. Johnson about the issue. He agreed that if I was able to talk to the Offender and she would bring his daughter he was not worried about the hour of time with her he had lost. When I called the Offender she was immediately confrontational and argumentative. She stated that the order did not start until today and that it said she would keep the daughter. I told her that the court order was filed on the 14th stating she had the kid from that time up until today when the first exchange was supposed to take place. She stated it didn`t matter that it said there was supposed to be an exchange. She became more angry and tried to talk over me without listening. I told her she would be violating a court order by not exchanging the daughter as specified. Her response was she had full custody and that they had court tomorrow so they would talk about it then. At one point she demanded to talk to my Sergeant but then stated she was done talking and hung up. After she hung up I spoke to Mr. Johnson and he asked what could be done. I advised him we could take a Custody Dispute report and that he needed to contact his lawyer as soon as possible. I also told him she said she could talk about it at court tomorrow. He stated he did not have court tomorrow and had no idea what she was talking about. A little while later while finishing the report I received a call from Sgt. McQuay. He advised the Offender had called him about the situation. He told her he did not have the paperwork in front of him but that he believed we were right and that it would be in her best interest to exchange the daughter. She advised him she would be en route to McDonalds on N Main St to do so. I then made contact with Mr.		GREEN, R. E.

They have been apart for a long time since the suspect has been in prison. He got out of prison a month or two ago and Powell was trying to help him get things he needed to live on his own. He battered her on 08/16/15. She filed a police report and filed for a protective order the next day. A temporary P.O. was in place until 09/15/15. On 08/19/15, he broke into her apartment and beat her up again. This time he tore up the hard copy of her protective order that had her court hearing date on it. She filed another battery report. She called the County Clerks office to find out her hearing date but they could not tell her because she did not know her cause number. She missed her hearing and the order expired. Tonight, the suspect called from his brother's phone at 2151 and 2153 hrs. Powell made it clear she did not want to talk to him and hung up. He called back and told her he was going to come to her apartment and hurt her "the hard way". Powell fears for her safety, and wants extra patrol. She is going to re-file for a protective order again tomorrow. She was given a case number and told how to follow up.		FAIR, D. A.
