	Officers were dispatched to 106 E. Maryland Street in regards to a battery report. The victim, Jack Sparrow, advised the offender punched him five times in the face. Officers observed Sparrow to have blood on his right cheek.
	Previously, officers were dispatched to the residence due to a dispute between Sparrow and the offender. The situation was calm and officers attempted to convince the offender to leave the residence for a period of time. Both parties were still on scene when officers left the residence, however, they were no longer arguing. Sparrow stated the offender assaulted him after officers left the home. Afterward, the offender left via the back door.
	Sparrow stated he has been in a homosexual relationship with the offender for approximately 4.5 years. They have also been living together for the same amount of time. Sparrow mentioned the argument was regarding his social security money. The offender felt he was entitled to Sparrows social security money and threatened to cut Sparrows tires to his vehicle if he did not give him $250 when he received his check.
	Officers provided Sparrow with a case number. He was also instructed on how to obtain a protective order against the offender.

After speaking to Officers the female refused to let the male back into the apartment to get his shoes. After some lengthy knocking the female re-opened the door for Officers. Officers kept the parties separated. The female stated that earlier she was up in the face of the male yelling and that one of his earbuds from his Iphone made contact with her forehead. The male stated that this was not the case and that the female was indeed in his face yelling and that there was no contact with his headphones or if there was it was purely the fault of the female. There was no injury from the small, white earbuds to the female. The female was fully advised on how to obtain a protective order, how to file for divorce, how to file for eviction and the services available for battered women. The female said she does not want to divorce the male or stop living with him. The male said he would voluntarily leave for the evening and left before Officers left the scene. Female was given a case number and advised that a DV Incident report was being taken. RMS shows prior arrests involvin the two parties. There was no crime to report.		SAMMET, N. P.
