Case #	Description <small>(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor</small>	Officer
LW	On listed date, time and location, Officers were dispatched in reference to a residential burglary in progress. Dispatch advised there was a male breaking into the back door, looking for his child`s mother. Dispatch advised they could hear him yelling, "Where`s that bitch at?!" Dispatch advised the callers were frantic and stated he was still inside of the residence, possibly armed. The callers advised they barricaded themselves inside of the upstairs restroom. Officers arrived on scene and entered through the rear door, which was shattered. Officers cleared the residence and located the caller, later identified as one of the victims, her sister, also identified as a victim, and two (2) small children, one of which was the suspect`s child, inside of the restroom they had hid in. Officers learned the suspect to be the father of one of the victim`s children, whom had a past of seriously hurting her. They advised the suspect possibly left in a silver Mercury Grand Marquis before Officers` arrival. The suspect arrived on scene, located the victims sitting on the porch and confronted them. They asked him to leave and he threw a beer can at one of the victim`s, striking her in the head. After being struck in the head, she pushed her sister into the house and then entered, locking the door behind her. The suspect was heard yelling, "I m gonna kill that bitch!" They heard him hit the rear door, causing them to flee upstairs, into the restroom and barricade the door to the best of their abilities. The suspect broke through the rear glass door, reached through and made entry into the residence uninvited. They heard the suspect walking up the stairs, looking for the mother of his child. Dispatch advised they could hear him stating, "Where`s that bitch at?" The suspect made attempts to locate one of the victim`s inside of the residence and had stated he was going to kill her. With the suspects history of violence toward her, Officers believe his intent upon entering the residence was to locate and seriously hurt the mother of his child, whom was present during the altercation. Officers requested the EPD Crime Scene Unit to assist. Officers placed a be on the lookout (BOL) for the suspect vehicle. The value of the back door was estimated to be approximately $600. Officers completed an arrest affidavit and filed for an arrest warrant. Officers completed a report, furnished both victims with a case number and forwarded the report to the EPD Domestic Violence Unit. Both were advised to follow-up with the County Clerk`s Office the next day to file for a restraining / protective order. No arrest was made.	GREEN, R. E.

	Officers were on routine patrol at E Louisiana St/Heidelberg Ave. Officers saw a vehicle headed west on Louisiana St and failed to dim their headlamps. Officers stopped the vehicle at the Marathon Gas station. When Officer stopped the vehicle the passengers started to exit the vehicle. Officers told them to stop and get back in the car. Officers were informed that the driver and another subject had pointed a handgun at a subject the night before. Due to the information listed above Officers ID all the subjects in the vehicle. Officers found the rear passenger on the drivers side had a warrant. Officers placed him in cuffs. Officers had the other 4 subjects exit the vehicle and patted them down for Officer safety. They were all told to sit around the front of the patrol car. The driver was acting very nervous and wouldn't stand still. He kept moving from where Officers told him to sit. Officers placed him in cuffs. Officers were searching the vehicle where the subject was sitting that had a warrant and found nothing. Officers took the cuffs off the driver and asked him if he had a problem if we searched the vehicle and he said no. He said there wasn't anything in the vehicle that shouldn't be in there. Officers found a baggy with a green leafy substance and a clear glass pipe in the rear passengers side floorboard. Officers also found a clear baggy with a white powder substance in the front passengers seat rear map pocket. Officers asked all three subjects in the rear in they knew about the narcotics and all three were blaming the others. The driver said he didnt know about anything in his car. All three in the rear and the driver were arrested for possession of meth, synthetic cannabis, and paraphernalia. The front passenger was released.
