LW 1522751 Alc-public Intox [bm]	that she knew the resident at 4610 but the resident who had been woken up by Pirtle banging on her door stated that she had no idea who Pirtle was. Officers attempted to information from Pirtle, but she could not remember where she had come from or the address. Pirtle stated that she left a friends apartment nearby so officers walked with her to the location she said she came from. Pirtle went to 4360 Spring Valley and knocked on the door and then eventually opened the door. When Pirtle opened the door officers observed a male subject, later identified as Z. Slygh passed out in a chair by the door and another male subject, later identified as R. Cogswell walking toward the door. Cogswell was asked if he knew Pirtle and he said a little. Officers stepped inside to speak with Cogswell about Pirtle and see if she had been at the apartment and if she was okay to stay there. While inside Cogswell said that the apartment was his and Pirtle had been there for a little bit. While officers were speaking to Cogswell they observed several syringes in plain view. Cogswell was also found to have one syringe in his left pocket. Officers also located a pipe used to ingest narcotics made out of aluminum foil and spoons with a burnt residue on them. Cogswell was read his miranda warnings and admitted that he used methamphetamine earlier in the evening and that is what the syringes were used for. Cogswell was placed in custody and transported to VCCC for possession of a syringe and possession of paraphernalia.		JUNCKER, A. T.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1522820	On the listed date and approximate time, officers were dispatched to N US 41 and Yokel Rd reference to a hit and run traffic accident where the victim was injured. Upon arrival, I, Officer Hastings, spoke to the victim who pointed out the suspect, Jessica Caswell, who had just exited a motel room at the Motel. The victim identified her by her clothing and physical description. I went to the area where I last saw the suspect and found her hiding in a stairwell. I detained the suspect at that time and found the suspect vehicle(IN WLE235) parked on the north side of the motel. I asked the suspect for her name and ID card. The suspect stated she didn't have an ID and when going through her purse, the suspect suddenly stood up and took off running to the southeast of the complex. I gave chase yelling for the suspect to stop and continuing to identify myself as a police officer. I caught up to the suspect and used the necessary force to take the suspect into custody. The suspect then began complaining of pain to her head, neck and lower abdomen. AMR#1180 transported the victim to my location where the victim again positively identified the suspect as the driver in the traffic accident. AMR#0956 transported the suspect to Deaconess hospital for medical evaluation. After being cleared from the hospital, I transported the suspect out to the Vanderburgh Co Confinement Center without incident. After leaving the jail and continuing patrol, I was contacted by the jail Sgt that the suspect's sister, Jennifer Caswell, had called and stated her twin sister had falsely used her name when we arrested her. It was later determined that the suspect, Jessica Caswell, had lied and gave false information during the investigation. All paperwork was corrected and resubmitted.		DOANE, J. P.
