LW 1523517 Weapon-handgun W/o A License [am]	Society VICTIM of Weapon-handgun W/o A License [am] (C), at 1406 Jeanette Ave, Evansville, IN, on 10/21/2015, 03:29. Reported: 10/21/2015. Officers were in the area of Dalehaven Estates looking for robbery suspects. Ricks was stopped riding his bike though the area officers had a perimeter set up. Upon coming in contact with Ricks I patted him down and when doing so I felt what felt like a gun. I asked Ricks what he had in his pocket and he stated a gun that he carried for protection and that he didnt have a permit. I then placed Ricks in cuffs and searched his person incident to arrest. When searching Ricks person I located a clear baggy with green leafy substance in it. I then looked inside a pack of cigarettes that Ricks had and located a small loose piece of green leafy substance. I tested both substances and they tested positive for marijuana.	JORDAN, D. L.

LW 1523545 Burglary Of A Dwelling	The victim stated she was in looking out the window when she noticed the offender in her back yard. She stated she went outside and noticed that her license plate was missing. She stated she knows the offender took her plate. I spoke with the offender who stated the only reason he was in the victims yard was to walk through it to get to the neighbors house. The victim was given a case number for a replacement plate. Wollner, Debra Ann (W F, 50) VICTIM of Burglary Of A Dwelling (C), at 1113 N Second Ave, Evansville, IN, between 13:40, 10/21/2015 and 14:20, 10/21/2015. Reported: 10/21/2015. I, Officer S. Brown, responded to assist day shift officers at 1113 N. Second Ave. in reference to a residential burglary. Officers J. Minto and R. Jewell were on scene and speaking to two victims, Wollner and Chinn. Chinn gave a list of items stolen to Officer Minto, while Wollner listed her stolen property with Officer Jewell. As Officer Minto went to his squad car, Chinn began speaking on the phone with someone. She made several comments about "them" taking her stuff. I then asked Chinn who she was talking about. Chinn said she believed Wollner had something to do with her items being stolen. When I was speaking with Wollner, Wollner indicated she believed Chinn may have been involved in some way. The two individuals were blaming each other. After speaking with Jewell and Minto, I learned Chinn came home and discovered her kid's Xbox and games were missing. She also discovered that her laptop was taken. At that time, she phoned Wollner. Wollner said she was driving her girlfriend to a critical care center due to an illness. Wollner received the call from Chinn and proceeded home. Wollner advised to Officer Jewell she was missing money, jewelry, cell phones and a laptop computer. Wollner told me later that Chinn had moved in after a relationship problem with her husband. She said Chinn was residing here with her teenage daughter, and that she has been friends with Chinn for years. Today, Wollner was driving her girlfriend to see a doctor when she received a phone call from Chinn (who had just arrived at the house). Wollner said she received the phone call approximately 15 minutes after she left. She said Chinn was hysterical and she couldn't understand what happened. She said she pulled over and listened to Chinn for about ten minutes before she asked to speak with Chinn's daughter. Wollner said she finally understood what happened and she started to drive home. She said she also phoned 911 to report the incident. Wollner advised Officer Jewell the jewelry, speakers and cash were taken from the living room, while the laptop and cell phones were taken from a bedroom. Lastly, Wollner said a table saw and battery charger were stolen from outside her home. Wollner said the house was left unlocked because Chinn never had a key.		BROWN, S. E.
