Officer Taylor and I went to escorted the offender out and he grabbed the chair he was sitting in and again refused to stand up. Officer Taylor and I were able to stand the offender up and escort him outside the patio area and attempted to find the offender a ride home. I was standing back inside the patio area when the suspect spit saliva directly at me just missing my shoes. At that time, I exited the patio area and redirected the offender to leave the area or he would be arrested. The offender refused and stood on the sidewalk. The offender was told again to leave and started cussing and yelling. The offender was told once more and he turned to walk away. When doing so, the offender walked up to the two parked patrol cars. The offender spit on the patrol cars and hit them with his fist. With the offender`s demeanor being aggressive toward officers, I feared he was a danger to himself and to the public due to his intoxicated stated. Officer Taylor and I took the suspect into custody using only the necessary force to effect the arrest. The offender was placed in the back of Officer Gibson`s patrol car. The offender started hitting his head against the window several times. Officer Taylor removed the offender from the vehicle and placed him back on the pavement.
