Reported: 10/03/2015. Sara Franklin called to report that someone had the Dollar General last night and left without informing them. Upon my arrival, I noticed the building had been hit on the West side of the building. The vehicle tore the siding off the side of the building exposing the insulation. I spoke to Franklin, who is the manager of the business. While talking to Franklin, she stated she believed that the Dollar General delivery driver struck the building. She stated she asked the driver, who denied striking the building. Since Franklin thought it was going to be an internal issue, she didn't call to report it. After getting corporate involved, they told her she had to file a report since the driver denied hitting the building. Franklin took me out to the damage. I was able to see several dents and scratches about ten feet off the ground. It seems something hit the building up high as well. This could possibly be from a large delivery truck. I informed Franklin that I will complete a report and told her if she had any additional information, to call records and add it to the report.		DEBLANC, M. E.

Reported: 10/03/2015. I was flagged down by Rocky Axton in front of EPD HQ. He told me his wallet was stolen last night at Tropicana. He said at approx. 1:50 p.m. he walked through Hoosiers lounge and went onto the boat. Once on the boat he realized his wallet was missing from his left front pocket. Axton said he went immediately to security to report his wallet stolen. Aztar security agent Nick Maldonado contacted him at 3:59 p.m. and left a message. Maldonado told Axton his wallet fell out of his pocket shortly before he entered the boat. The wallet was picked up by a man that was walking behind him. Aztar security told him they could not release any information about the subject who stole his wallet. They also advised him he would need to go to EPD HQ to file a report. Axton said he looked in all the trash cans close to Aztar hoping his wallet was in one. I contacted Aztar security about the situation. "Mike" from Aztar security advised me they were aware of the situation and did have the suspect on tape. He told me I would have to have a subpoena to be able to review the tape. He also told me it would have to be cleared with their cooperate office. I asked why their security didn't contact us to take a report immediately after the wallet was discovered stolen. He advised me he didn't know. I gave him our case number so he could put it on the DVD. I gave Axton the case number to the report.		PIERCE, C. L.
