LW 1522472	Victim VICTIM of Child-custody Interfere [cm] (C), between 17:00, 10/08/2015 and 17:20, 10/08/2015. Reported: 10/08/2015. VI requested police assistance on today's date to attain his daughter from listed OF. VI had court documents and claimed he was due visitation per 2013 IN parenting guidelines. He had text with listed OF that suggested she was refusing him visitation tonight, but was going to meet at their regular place and time (tomorrow - Friday Oct 09, 2015). The OF came to her residence and the two came to an agreement. The daughter, Alleina, went with the father. The mother will retain her on the Wednesday prior to Thanksgiving. The OF offered her own text stream showing the two had discussed the mother having their child tonight and in exchange the father would have their daughter the Wednesday before Thanksgiving. Her understanding was that was their agreement. She stated in text and in person that she had cleared her schedule for Friday Oct. 9th, 2015. The OF confirmed they discussed the swap. I, Officer White, believe the two had a miscommunication. I suggested they be more specific in their responses, ie, YES, NO, etc. Further that they put dates in their text to avoid confusion.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1522476 Battery - Class B Misdemeanor [bm]	Friedlund, John Aaron (W M, 43) VICTIM of Battery - Class B Misdemeanor [bm] (C), at 225 N Burkhardt Rd, Evansville, IN, between 15:10, 10/08/2015 and 15:15, 10/08/2015. Reported: 10/08/2015. Officer was dispatched to 225 N Burkhardt Rd for a battery report and I spoke to the victim. Vi stated that a customer got angry when he was told that the victim couldn't help him any further. The customer stood up and spit on the victim's shirt one time and then left the store. Victim was given a case number and I explained the process of filing charges. The witness was sitting in the chair right next to the offender.		VANCLEAVE, J. T.
LW 1522475 Intimidation Threat [am]	Blanchard, Ami Beth (W F, 39) VICTIM of Intimidation Threat [am] (C), at 312 N Third Ave, Evansville, IN, between 17:00, 10/08/2015 and 17:20, 10/08/2015. Reported: 10/08/2015. The occupants of both 312 and 314 N Third have many ongoing disagreements and do not get along at all. Today the victim stated that the suspect threatened her because she was recording him with his dog. She said he threatened to beat her up and said his wife wasn't pregnant so she better watch out. She also said that he said he would kill her. The witness stated that both parties were arguing as usual but no threats were made. All parties involved are constantly stirring up problems with the other. Officers have made numerous runs to both houses in the last few months. Most issues are minor but lead to complaints to other agencies over trash, weeds, and animals. Neither side shows any interest in putting their issues to rest. The Victim stated she did want a report but would most likely not follow up with the prosecutors office. We informed her if she did not then most likely nothing would happen. She stated she already knew that. She was given a case number. The suspect was not on scene. He had left prior to Officers being called so that he could get away from the victim and cool down. Reported: 10/08/2015. An officer was dispatched to 1211 E Louisiana St in reference to a hold up report. Upon arrival, the victim stated she went to the suspects home to hang out with another friend who was there. The victim stated she lost her cell phone while she was there and everyone that was at the suspect home emptied their pockets. The victim stated shortly after her phone came up missing, the suspect's friend vehicle keys came up missing. The victim stated the suspect blamed her and her friend since the victim phone came up missing. The victim stated the suspect stood in front of the front door and told her she was not leaving until the keys were found. The victim stated she and her friend actively tried to leave out the front door but the suspect would not let them leave and held them against their will. The victim stated after they were able to get out, the suspect followed them outside and threatened to hit her vehicle with a baseball bat. The victim stated the suspect then walked up to her with a gun in his waist band. The victim stated he did not point the gun at her but told her that it was not registered and could go off at anytime. The victim stated she saw that the weapon was black in color. The victim stated she waited to call police because she was scared. The suspect stated he was going to get his sister to beat up the victim and her friend.		WARD, J. D.
