Reported: 10/13/2015. M. MacClellan stated that the OF had called him to get a ride. He said he and his girlfriend have been getting to know the OF through a third party and therefore did not know her last name. MacClellan advised he was driving her around to various places and she asked him to take her to a house two house north on the west side of Garvin/Maryland. He stated that she put her cell phone down on his center console, where his medication bottle was. He advised he was distracted and then rememebered he needed to take his medicaiton, as it is to be taken ever 4-6 hours. He went to grab it and it was gone. The OF then fled out of his vehicle. He chased after her and all around the block. He kept telling her he just wanted the bottle back. He told her that if she did not give it back he was calling the police. She told him not to call the police because they will get her "hemmed up" for prostitution. She finally agreed to give him the bottle back. As he took it, he saw that there were only 5 pills left. She then fled in an unknown direction. MacClellan advised that he just filled the prescription on Monday and takes around 4 a day so only 8-12 should be missing. MacClellan is missing 23-27 pills. MacClellan showed me a picture of the OF that he took today as the ordeal unfolded. I asked him to send me the picture so I could attach it to the report. He stated he would. He also gave me her cell phone, which she left in his vehicle prior to her fleeing the first time. Her cell phone was entered in to evidence. Groves, Mckenna Trena (B F, 36) VICTIM of Fc-impersonation Of A Public Servant (C), at 2303 N First Ave, Evansville, IN, between 14:30, 10/13/2015 and 14:40, 10/13/2015.
