The United Nations declared October 11th as the International Day of the Girl Child with the mission "to help galvanize worldwide enthusiasm for goals to better girls' lives, providing an opportunity for them to show leadership and reach their full potential." It's a day when activist groups come together under the same goal to highlight, discuss, and take action to advance rights and opportunities for girls everywhere. Here in Evansville, the YWCA will celebrate the International Day of the Girl by bringing awareness to an issue that impacts girls all over the world, and even right here in the state of Indiana.

Based on the international bestselling novel by Patricia McCormick, and inspired by true accounts, SOLD tells the story of 13 year-old Lakshmi, who is trafficked from her peaceful, rural village in Nepal to work in a brothel called Happiness House in Kolkata, India. Through one extraordinary girl's story, SOLD illustrates the brutality of child trafficking, which affects millions of children around the globe every year.

This film was written & directed by Academy and Emmy award-winner, Jeffrey D. Brown. Executive Produced by two time Academy Award winner, Emma Thompson, and stars X-Files' Gillian Anderson, David Arquette, and newcomer Niyar Saikia; playing Lakshmi.
