I was given a run out of the sergeant's office to 1500 N. Fulton Ave., Powers Welding, in reference to a theft report. I arrived and met with the reporter, Sharon Smith. Smith is the daughter of the victim, Naomi Spurling. Smith said her mother lives at 2520 Serenity Place in Evansville. She said her mother is elderly and has supportive services come to her mother's residence to help. The two agencies that provide service to Ms. Spurling are Senior Helpers Agency and Adaptive Home-Health Services. Smith said she has noticed different things that have come up missing over the last several weeks. Smith said it really became obvious around 12/09/16 when some Christmas presents Spurling bought came up missing. There was also some cash missing and her Indiana ID card. Smith determined it had to be employees from the supportive service agencies that were coming into the residence. She said she called both agencies and talked to them about her concerns. Smith said she needed to file a police report in reference to the thefts from her mother's home.		SMITH, K. E.
