LW 1628566 Theft All Other < $750	Andres, Michael (W M, 57) VICTIM of Theft All Other < $750 (C), at 421 Nw Riverside Dr, Evansville, IN, between 00:30, 12/24/2016 and 01:00, 12/24/2016. Reported: 12/24/2016. I was working off-duty at Tropicana (421 NW Riverside Drive) in full police uniform when I was contacted by Tropicana Security in regards to a possible theft. I made contact with the victim, Michael Andres, inside the lobby of the Tropicana Hotel. He advised two women had taken his wallet containing approximately $600 cash, credit cards and identification. Andres was heavily intoxicated. He slurred his words and had difficulty remembering the events of the evening. He stated he was sitting inside Max & Erma's when he was approached by OF #1 and OF #2. They propositioned him and offered favors in exchange for $120.00. Andres accepted the offer and OF #1 and OF #2 escorted Andres outside of the Tropicana Pavilion and approached Riverside Drive. At that point, Andres fell to the ground and OF #1 ran back into the Tropicana Pavilion. OF #2 helped Andres up and escorted him across Riverside Drive and into the Tropicana Hotel. Andres was unsure if he had fallen on his own or if the offenders had pushed him down. I briefly reviewed surveillance video of the incident. After running back inside the Tropicana Pavilion, OF #1 made contact with OF #3 and OF #4. OF #1 passed off a white item to OF #3. Afterward, OF #1 disappeared and OF #3 and OF #4 quickly ran up the "down" escalator inside the pavilion. They were in such a hurry that they fell multiple times while attempting to scurry up the escalator. Afterward, they walked across the skyway and toward the level 2 parking garage until they were out of view of the camera's. I contacted Detective J. Harris in regards to the incident and he instructed me to complete a theft report. I requested Tropicana Surveillance to gather all video related to the incident and prepare a disc for EPD Crime Scene to retrieve at a later date. I e-mailed EPD CSU in regards to the available video. Andres was told to immediately cancel all of his debit and credit cards and to notify his banking institution.	BREWER, J. W.

Reported: 12/24/2016. Officers were dispatched to the above address in reference to a Family Dispute. On scene, I spoke to the victim, later identified as P. Ellis. Ellis stated he and the suspect, later identified as S. Johnson, have been dating for three years and both live at the above address. Ellis stated he and Johnson had been arguing earlier in the evening and he finally went to the living room to go to sleep. Ellis continued that Johnson followed him into the living room and hit him on the chest and pulled at his shirt. Ellis denied being in pain and did not have any visible marks on him. Ellis stated he called 9-1-1 so he could leave for the evening. I then spoke to Johnson who stated she recently learned that Ellis was "cheating" on her with another woman. Johnson stated she wanted to talk to Ellis about his infidelity, but Johnson told her he wanted to go to sleep. Johnson admitted she followed Ellis into the living room where he was laying on the couch, but stated she only tried to grab the covers to pull them back so he would talk to her. Ellis agreed to leave the residence for the evening. Both parties were given the case # and told the process for following up with the Prosecutor's Office if they decided to pursue charges.		CONDIFF, M. V.

LW 1628568 Battery- Hff Domestic [am]	leave her boyfriend alone. They all ran back to the car and drove off toward Stringtown on Richardt. The victim had a swollen upper lip with bleeding abrasion on it. He took photos of the injury and wished to pursue charges. Baldwin, Hannah Michael (W F, 33) VICTIM of Battery- Hff Domestic [am] (C), at 1009 N Weinbach Ave, Evansville, IN, between 01:35, 12/24/2016 and 01:49, 12/24/2016. Reported: 12/24/2016. The victim (VI) states that she and her boyfriend (OF) rented a limo to visit various Christmas Parties at the local bars. At approximately 0100 hrs., the OF wanted to go to a specific bar and party a little more, but the victim`s stomach became upset and she wanted to remain in the limo. This upset the OF, but he went in anyway. When the OF exited the bar, he got back in the limo and began arguing with the VI. The VI explained to the OF that her stomach was upset, but the OF, not accepting the reason, began calling the VI a whore and accused her of cheating on him. The OF then instructed the limo driver to go to the listed address, so he could drop the VI off. During this, the OF continued cursing at the VI and make false accusations. When the driver pulled up to her house, the OF grabbed the VI by the hair and threw her out of the vehicle. The OF followed the VI and when they were at the back door, he grabbed the VI by the throat and began choking her. The VI did not lose consciousness, as the OF let go before could that happen. The OF then went around to the side of the house and began urinating. The VI pounded on the back door, screaming for her daughter to let her in. Once inside, the OF left. As the VI was explaining to her daughter what happened, the daughter called police. The VI sustained a minor abrasion to her right knee when she was thrown out of the car and I observed that she was visibly shaken. I did not see any marks to the victim`s neck that would indicate choking, however, bruising may appear later. The VI was also complaining of pain to her neck and knee. The VI added that in their year long relationship, she has never seen her boyfriend act like this, but stated he was very drunk. They do not live together, nor do they have any children in common. The VI did not know which Limo company her boyfriend used tonight. The VI was instructed on how to secure a protection order and advised that she was fine to stay home.		PYLANT, R. E.
